

MOTHER, 19, DIES IN 3-CAR ACCIDENT

S-D Week Toll Continues to Set Record

Son of Victim Hospitalized; Husband Arrested

A 19-year-old mother last night became Palm Springs' first traffic fatality during Safe Driving Week. Fatally injured and dead on arrival at Desert Hospital was Mrs. Herminia Rivera of Thermal. Her 15-month-old son suffered injuries requiring hospitalization in the three-car accident on Highway 111 at Araby Point, and five others sustained minor injuries which did not require medical treatment. Time of the mishap was 11:05 p.m.

RUBIN MADRID RIVERA, 21, husband of the victim and father of the child, was held by police following investigation for violation of the state penal code—negligent manslaughter. Other persons who were injured but not hospitalized were:

PAUL RANGEL, 50, of Palm Springs, who was driving his 1953 Chevrolet east at the time of the accident.

Constance R. Meeks, 49, of Rancho Mirage, who was driving a 1952

THE ACCIDENT occurred when the Rivera car, rounding the curve at Araby Point, side-swiped the Rangel car, spun and hit the car driven by Constance Meeks and turned over in the middle of the road, police said. Baby bottles and rattles, torn steel and glass littered the highway for 500 yards along the road.

Police last night were checking for a gray Cadillac which also was reported to have been involved in the accident, as a result of the initial report received at the station. It is believed to have been false.

Investigating the accident were: Sgt. Bob Ralph, in charge; Capt. Orest Johnson, Sgt. Dale Thompson, Officers Bill Madsen, Dick Harries and Jack Fristad.

THIS ACCIDENT marked the ninth traffic collision since the beginning of Safe Driving Week and added the tabulation of the first death. The accident of November 22, in which three persons were killed and two injured, happened on the eve of S-D Week.

The eighth accident, causing only mechanical damage to cars, involved vehicles driven by Joseph T. Nicholson of Juneau, Alaska, and Mrs. Mae Greenberg of Los Angeles. Scene was near Rancho Trailer Park.

Holiday Spirit to be Added to Streets Monday

Merry Christmas! City Manager R. W. Peterson said today that the Christmas ornaments along Palm Canyon Drive will be put up Monday morning. The ornaments, which have decorated the street for the past five years, were donated originally by the Palm Springs Junior Chamber of Commerce and since then the City of Palm Springs has maintained and added to them.

PAULO VERDE Calculatin' Cal got his name for always calculatin' something, and it's always something no one's got any business to calculate about. For instance he calculated that if he was always kept on top of an adobe shack—like he keeps his—and burros were always looking up at it like his do and wanting it, it would take twenty-five thousand years for the burro to grow a neck like a giraffe to reach it—or to sprout wings and fly after it.

Cal says a hen at his shack wanted to set, so lacking her fruit he put some Desert Tortoise eggs under her. The hen remained faithful to her job until the tortoises were hatched. But hasn't been seen since.

three-car accident at Araby Point; her husband was charged with negligent manslaughter, and their 15-month-old son suffered injuries requiring hospitalization.

(Desert Sun Photo) THIS 1953 CHEVROLET, owned by Paul Rangel of Palm Springs, was sideswiped by the Rubin Rivera car as it passed around the bend at Araby Point last night, according to police. Though the car was badly damaged, Rangel received no serious injuries. The accident marked the first traffic death since the beginning of Safe Driving Week on Wednesday.

Social Service Commission for Village Studied

City Manager Robert W. Peterson revealed today that a citizen's study committee had been set up to look into the formation of a Social Service Commission similar to one in Los Angeles.

The Los Angeles commission was set up during World War I in an attempt to control fund drives within the city. An ordinance passed in 1913 and amended in 1917 requires that any fund raising campaign register a petition of intent 10 days prior to the start of the campaign.

The Los Angeles commission charges a $25 fee of professional fund raising chairman, but no fee of amateur groups.

The idea of the commission was initiated by Mrs. Ethel Luccareni and Mrs. Melba Bennett, and brought before City Council two weeks ago. At that time, question was raised as to whether the use of a part time, city-payrolled secretary could be employed for the commission.

The committee for study includes Mrs. Luccareni, Mrs. Bennett, City Attorney Jerry Bunker, City Manager Peterson, Mrs. Adele Portis, and attorney Arnold Runwell.

Cabazon Council Gives Poker Monopoly

The expected came to pass last night. Jerry Koseff, Hollywood accountant, and his wife, Betty Jane, were granted a permit as private individuals to open a poker casino in Cabazon.

The newly elected city council, in this manner, handed the accountant a monopoly in the operation of draw poker establishments in the small desert community, as it had previously limited the number of permits to one per 10,000 population.

Council to Await Coachella Valley Census Before District Study

A study into redistricting by members of city council will be postponed till the census is completed in the Spring, it was decided Wednesday night.

Pursuant to a request by Councilman Ted McKinney for study into the inevitable problem of making councilmanic districts as even as possible in population, City Manager Robert W. Peterson told McKinney that with census figures to work with, the study would take care of itself, and require only action by council.

All members of council agreed with Peterson. Previously, at its meeting, council approved the expenditure of $110 for court costs in determining validity of the last councilmanic election. Councilman Jerry Nathanson cast the only ballot against the expenditure.

UN Demands Reds Account for Prisoners

450 Americans Listed as Still Missing in Korea

PANMUNJOM, Korea, 1955 — The United Nations command renewed its demand today that the Communists account for 450 Americans missing in the Korean War, including the son of Gen. James A. Van Fleet.

The American-led command also called for information on 2,224 South Korean soldiers and 45 other Allied prisoners. All of the prisoners including the Americans were reported alive when the war ended. Nothing further was ever heard of them.

Rear Adm. Roger E. Moore, the chief U.N. delegate who delivered the demand at a full dress meeting of the Korean Armistice Commission, told newsmen afterwards the missing Americans included 244 soldiers, 190 airmen, 13 marines and three sailors.

TODAY'S MEETING — the first in weeks — was called by the Americans to discuss specifically the missing allied troops. The Communist truce commission delegates walked out or ignored earlier demands for an accounting but today they accepted it for study "with reservations."

Moore said he was "hopeful" the Communists "might possibly do what they had long refused to do and tell us what happened to these personnel."

However, Moore added that Maj. Gen. Chung Kook Rok, the Communist chief delegate, was "not at all responsible to the proposal." Moore said Chung used a reply used by the Reds many times before — that all prisoners were repatriated or accounted for when the war ended more than two years ago.

MOORE INSISTED the Allies had "reason to believe" all of the men on the 128-page list had been alive while in Communist custody. There never has been public disclosure of what basis officials had for their belief that the prisoners, including Air Force Capt. James A. Van Fleet Jr. were alive.

Moore said the U. N. command's renewal of the demand for an accounting resulted from the Geneva ambassadorial talks between the United States and Communist China.

He said U. S. Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson and Communist Ambassador Wang Ping-nan discussed the missing prisoners at Geneva and "Mr. Wang insisted that the proper channel for this discussion was the military armistice commission."

"We concur," the admiral said. The Communist commission member again raised the issue of 21,000 North Koreans who were released by Korean guards under orders of President Syngman Rhee in defiance of Gen. Mark Clark's instructions shortly before the armistice was signed July 27, 1953.

French Communists May Defeat Faure

PARIS 1955 — A leader of France's powerful Communist Party said today his group may vote against Premier Edgar Faure in Tuesday's vote of confidence—a move that could topple the Faure government.

Faure, battling for election reforms in a hostile National Assembly, squeaked through his last two confidence votes only because he had the support of the 94 Communist deputies.

Jacques Duclos, floor leader of the Communist group, told correspondents today: "I think we shall vote against Faure, but the group will fix its stand on Tuesday."

Russ Claim Mightiest of All Weapons

But U.S. Reveals Bombs 10 to 20 Times Stronger

MOSCOW 1955 — Russia announced today it set off a hydrogen blast it said was mightiest of all nuclear weapon explosions.

An official statement said the tests were conducted with new kinds of atomic and thermonuclear hydrogen bomb weapons.

The Soviet announcements confirmed a U.S. Atomic Energy Commission disclosure three days ago that the Soviets had exploded their largest nuclear weapon so far. The AEC said the blast was "in the range of megatons." A megaton equals 1,000,000 tons of TNT in explosive power.

The United States has never officially disclosed the power of the hydrogen bombs tested on Eniwetok last Spring. But they were reported to have a force of as high as 12 to 14 megatons.

U.S. Bomb Rated For Ahead of Russ

WASHINGTON 1955 — The United States has developed H-bombs at least 10 and probably 20 times as powerful as the one Russia recently tested, informed sources said today.

That was the reaction here to Soviet announcements about the test. Moscow called it "the most powerful of all explosions carried out so far." Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev, touring India, said it equalled one million tons of TNT.

If Khrushchev was right about the power of the bomb, experts said, then Moscow must have meant it was the "most powerful" tested by Russia. Certainly it was not the most powerful ever set off. The H-bomb which the United States exploded at the Eniwetok proving ground in the Pacific on March 1, 1954, has been reliably reported to have equalled from 12 to 20 million tons of TNT.

Bus Application to be Discussed

Public hearing of John Jervik's application to operate a bus system between Palm Springs and Desert Hot Springs will start Tuesday at 1 p.m. in the Palm Springs city offices.

The date for the hearing on the system, called Desert Hot Springs Stage Lines, was set by the Public Utilities Commission. Examiner Kent C. Rogers will preside.

If permission is granted, fares will be established at the Tuesday hearing.

French Selling Jet Fighters to Israel, Report

PARIS, 1955 — France has signed contracts to sell Mystere II jet fighter planes to Israel and already has shipped 12 slower "Ouragan" models, authoritative sources said today.

The disclosure came after the recent French agreement to resume shipment of jet planes to Egypt also.

The Mystere II, a match for the famous Soviet MIG-15, has not been shipped to Israel. It was believed the French government has not yet given the final okay for their export, but authoritative sources said the contracts have been signed.

Highway Patrol Has Hot One to Handle

FIRESTONE 1955 — The Highway Patrol handled a hot one today at a local intersection.

A truck carrying a portable lead container of radioactive isotopes was overturned when it collided with an automobile. Truck driver Richard Muro, 27, of Azusa, said there was no danger.

Two men with Gieger counters from Ex-Ray Engineering Co., of El Segundo, were sent to check the intersection.

NUCLEAR BLAST FROM MOSCOW TO MOSCOW, BELIEVED

MOSCOW, Idaho, 1955 — A radio-activity reading more than 10 times normal here yesterday gave rise to speculation that atomic fallout from Russia's recent nuclear explosion may have traveled from one Moscow to another.

Dr. James V. Jordan, agricultural chemist in charge of University of Idaho studies on radio-activity in the air, said research technician W. R. Schell obtained a reading of 327 counts of radio-activity per minute yesterday.

Normal reading here is about 30 and the highest reading obtained previously was 180 during United States atomic tests in Nevada, Jordan said. He added, "We have been getting rain from the North Pacific and there is the possibility that the increased radioactivity is due to airborne fallout from the tests reported to have taken place in Russia recently."

Rebels Ambush Ambulance Train Kill 17 French

RABAT, Morocco 1955 — Moroccan terrorists ambushed a French ambulance convoy in the Rif Mountains and killed 17 soldiers and wounded 10 others, the French Army announced today.

Several army vehicles, accompanying a Red Cross ambulance carrying wounded French troops, ran into a hail of submachine gun fire on a twisting mountain road 50 miles northeast of Fez yesterday afternoon.

The French troops took cover but 17 were killed and 10 others wounded, seven seriously, before the terrorists were driven from vantage points overlooking the road.

A French rescue column from nearby garrison posts en route to relieve the ambushed troops also was attacked by Moroccan rebels. There were no reports of casualties in the clash.

War planes from the Meknes base took off to pound rebel bands in the area. French troops also received support of heavy artillery stationed along the lower slopes of the Rif Massif.

NO DAMAGE CAUSED

A small fire was reported to the Palm Springs Fire department yesterday, from the Palm Springs Hotel. According to Fire Captain Chet Goff, no damage was caused when the broiler became overheated and grease ignited.

PRESS STOPPERS

CADETS UPSET MIDDIES 14 - 6 PHILADELPHIA UP — Underdog Army spotted Navy an early touchdown and then unleashed a relentless ground attack for two touchdowns in the second half to win the 56th annual service football classic, 14 - 6, today before 102,000 fans at Municipal Stadium. Army's line, outplayed early in the game, pushed Navy all over the field in the second half and gave the hard-kicking Cadet backfield the opening score for the first time in the third period. Army sewed it up with less than four minutes to play in the game.

BULLETIN — Police today are investigating the report of a robbery of the Palm Springs Bowling Alley. The intruder entered into the building from an open rear door, broke open a cabinet under the cash register in the bar and took two bags of currency. They contained $358.88. Sgt. Bob White, who is in charge of the investigation, said the theft occurred between 2:15 and 9 a.m.

BULLETIN — County Sheriffs Deputies are seeking the identity of a man found dead this afternoon on the south side of the road leading into the Lazy C Guest Ranch. Deputies Carroll Vogelaar and Lt. Ed Brown are in charge of the case.

Real Estate Members to Honor Cotton

State President to be Guest at Dinner Dance Here

Members of the Palm Springs Real Estate Board will honor John Cotton of San Diego, 1956 president of the California Real Estate Association, at a dinner dance at 7 p.m., Friday, December 2, at the Ranch Club, President Terry Ray announces.

The reality official will be accompanied here by his wife, H. Jackson Pontius, state secretary, and Mrs. Pontius, together with Lloyd Loveland, regional vice president for this area, and Mrs. Loveland.

Cotton, named to lead California Realtors in 1956 during the state association's convention at Los Angeles in September, has just returned from meetings of nationally prominent realtors in the east in his capacity as a director of the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

Local members who are aiding in preparations are: Theresa Press, chairman of the entertainment and decorating committees, and Peter B. Sheptenko and Jules de Vorzon, who are in charge of tickets and reservations.

Ray urged everyone who plans to attend to secure tickets as soon as possible, as the number is limited.

Aid for Hospital

Margaret Krysan, president of Desert Does, asked today that any members of that organization, willing to volunteer to assist in stuffing envelopes for the fund raising campaign for Angel View Crippled Children's Hospital, be at the Farmers Market parking lot at 7:45 p.m., Monday, to go to Desert Hot Springs.

Christmas Tree Crop Drastically Cut by Weather

E. B. McGovern, leading fish-canning industry operator in Seattle and the northwest, said today that:

"Your Christmas trees are going to cost more this year."

McGovern, annual visitor to Palm Springs for years, returned to the Village last week. He said that he received word from the northwest and western Canada where most of the best Yuletide trees come from, that extreme cold weather had drastically reduced this year's crop.

His son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fleck of Cranbrook, B. C., wrote him that the Kitsap evergreen crop, huckleberry brush and holly, had been severely affected by the cold weather.

The tree crop has been reduced 50 percent and the others up to 75 percent.

On top of that, his daughter wrote, the weather has been so cold in Western Canada in the tree country—25 to 30 below zero—that there has been difficulty in obtaining workmen.

The Flecks, however, have selected a carload of their best and will ship them to Palm Springs, arriving here about December 10, McGovern said.

Kefauver Meets Wisconsin Aides

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — Sen. Estes Kefauver huddled today with the Wisconsin Democrats who supported him at the 1952 presidential convention.

Kefauver, who swept all Wisconsin delegates in the state's presidential primary four years ago, met with a cross-section of them at a breakfast gathering.

Scholarship Society Has Large Membership

Nellie Coffman Scholarship Society held its first meeting of the year, with the membership more than doubled as a result of new members from the seventh grade.

Members have as their goal to show by example not only scholastic leadership, but sportsmanship, good fellowship, integrity and behavior. In this way, it was stated, more students will be encouraged to strive for scholarship grades.

President to Rest Up Over Weekend with His Family

GETTYSBURG, Pa. — President Eisenhower planned today to devote the remainder of the Thanksgiving weekend to his family before plunging into a nearly normal work schedule on Monday.

The Chief Executive's leisurely holiday weekend was interrupted Friday with a few hours work at his new Gettysburg office.

He accepted the resignation of Hugh W. Cross as chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission; made 97 recess appointments in the foreign service corps of the State Department, and discussed routine matters with an aide.

After more rest and romps with his three grandchildren, Mr. Eisenhower will begin a heavier work schedule starting Monday with a frankly political meeting with GOP National Chairman Leonard W.

Hall. The following day Mr. Eisenhower will confer with Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland and House GOP Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. on his 1956 legislative program.

White House sources said Mr. Eisenhower is confident that he now is well on the way to recovery from his Sept. 24 heart attack.

The President plans to move back to the White House about Dec. 20 to take a personal hand in Republican efforts to steer his legislative program through the Democratic-controlled 84th Congress.

Mr. Eisenhower's decision to return before Congress reconvenes on Jan. 3 was viewed as an indication of his desire to resume full command of the government and the Republican Party.

Arrest Motorist After Fatality

LOS ANGELES, Calif. — A man was killed and a woman was injured critically today by a hit-run driver.

The dead man was identified as Paul Williams, 34, of Venice. Taken unconscious to General Hospital was Mary Cleveland, 19, also of Venice.

Police said there were no witnesses, but they arrested William M. Starry, 36, a salesman on suspicion of manslaughter.

Starry told police the two pedestrians were struck by two vehicles and that he was unable to keep from running over them. Police said there were dents in his fender and hood.

Four Carloads of Police Needed to Subdue Row

LOS ANGELES, Calif. — Four carloads of police were called out last night to subdue an irate mother, her teenage son and two runaway girls.

When Glen A. King, 18, of Compton, called at the home of Lawrence Clark, 17, in search of his 17-year-old sister, he was told to go away.

He returned with Patrolmen S. A. Johnson and R. R. Irwin, who found two Riverside girls, ages 14 and 15, at Clark's home. The runaways put up a scrap and had to be manacled hand and foot.

Clark put up a scrap too, and slugged King, police reported. Clark's mother, Mrs. Frances Trejo, 39, was accused of scratching Irwin on the face and hand and bopping him on the head with a shoe.

Three other patrol cars were summoned at this point. Mrs. Trejo was booked on a charge of interfering with police and her son on a battery charge. The runaways were turned over to their parents.

King went home and found his sister, who hadn't been at Clark's house in the first place.

Hostile Japanese Throng Trial of GIs in Maebashi

By RUTHERFORD POATS
United Press Staff Correspondent

MAEBASHI, Japan. — The trial of four American soldiers who brawled in the streets of this mountain town with a score of Japanese police and civilians, opened here today in a Japanese courtroom packed with hostile spectators.

American attorney Frank Scolinus argued successfully for a one week delay in filing the soldiers' plea on grounds he had taken the case only yesterday and had had time to talk with only one of the men, Pfc. Allan C. May of Cleveland, Ohio.

Maebashi District Judge Tsunoo Yamaguchi also granted Scolinus' request for time to submit a written argument for transfer of the trial to a court not likely to be influenced by popular emotions on the case.

THE JUDGE will consider this argument at the next session, December 3.

The trial, which opened in a Roman holiday atmosphere here, was expected to draw increased attention. U. S. Congressman Charles Boyle, Chicago Democrat, was flying to Japan on a military Air Transport plane to observe Japanese justice in the case. He is due in Tokyo late Saturday night.

Japan has jurisdiction over criminal acts of American servicemen committed off duty and outside military posts.

SCOLINUS, of Los Angeles, said he had originally intended to enter a "not guilty" plea to the charges of resisting arrest and assaulting policemen. He decided to press for postponement of his plea when the other three GIs appointed him as their defense counsel just as the trial opened today.

They are Cpl. Walter R. McKenzie, 21, of Detroit; Pfc. Kenneth J. Reynolds, 22, McGee, Ark., and SP3 Jessie Norkyte, 22, of Minneapolis, Kan.

The incident occurred Sept. 4. All the men were on pass from their First Cavalry Division engineer unit at nearby Camp Whittington when they got into the brawl which started when they broke a window in a pinball parlor. It ended in a Japanese vs. America free-for-all.

Big Three Plans Talks in Paris

LONDON, England. — The Big Three western foreign ministers will meet in Paris next month to map European policy moves following the breakdown of the Geneva conference, it was disclosed today.

U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Harold MacMillan and French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay plan to confer during the NATO Council meeting opening December 15.

The NATO ministers will set the defense targets of the North Atlantic Alliance for 1956, official sources said.

BROCKTON, Mass. — Rocky Marciano, world heavyweight champion, denied today that he planned to retire from the ring after one more fight. Marciano said he plans to keep on fighting as long as he is in good physical condition. A Baltimore newspaper revealed Friday the champ had told one of its writers he planned to retire after one more fight.

McCarthy Lands in Jam in His Own Home Town

APPLETON, Wis. — Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy had political circles buzzing in his home town today because of his recommendation of a convicted gambler and bootlegger for a federal post.

The Outagamie County Republican Committee said it was "caught by surprise" when McCarthy's Washington office announced the appointment of Thomas Miller, 57, as Appleton's acting postmaster.

Records showed that Miller had been convicted in 1931 on charges of violating the federal prohibition laws. In 1946 and 1951 he was convicted on charges of accepting illegal bets on horse races.

McCarthy refused to comment on the matter except to say he had recommended Miller for the post. Miller said only that, "There are a lot of places you can check up on me and I don't have to say anything."

School Grades, Family Moving, Cause 2 to Die

LOS ANGELES, Calif. — Two Los Angeles area high school boys have hanged themselves—one because of school grades and the other because his family moved here from Wyoming, police said.

Michael R. Baird, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon E. Baird, of Whittier, was found hanging last night in the back yard of the Baird home. He apparently had hanged himself with a half-inch rope thrown over a tree limb.

His parents said he had been worrying about his grades.

Dean Rebbe, 16, of Burbank, was found early today hanging by two fan belts from rafters in a shed behind his home. A ladder was near him.

Burbank police said his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Rebbe, told them Dean had been unhappy since they moved to California from Powell, Wyo., in August, 1954.

Plane, 3 Aboard Crashes, All Safe

SALOME, Ariz. — A private plane piloted by a Long Beach, California, man and carrying two other persons crashed one-half mile south of the Salome Auxiliary Airstrip today. All occupants apparently escaped serious injury.

The Civil Aeronautics Authority at Blythe, California, said a pilot of a civilian plane had spotted the wreckage of the silver-colored Sunson. He also told the CAA that the word "help" had been spelled out on the runway of the desert air-strip.

The plane was reported piloted by Daniel E. Smith.

Three Children, Woman Die in Chicago Blaze

CHICAGO, Ill. — Three young children and their great-aunt were killed when fire swept a five-room frame house in suburban East Chicago Heights today.

The children's uncle, Volunteer Fire Chief Sam Kamp, watched helplessly as his home burned to the ground.

The dead were Kamp's mother, Mrs. Ella Kamp, 66, and his nieces and nephew, Frances Brock, 10, Cynthia, 8, and Harrison, 7.

The children's mother was visiting friends at the time of the fire. Police said the victims died in their beds and the cause of the blaze was undetermined.

El Centro Jarred by Sharp Quake

EL CENTRO, Calif. — A rolling earthquake jarred the El Centro area at 9:35 a.m. today and also was felt eastward to Holtville and southward to Calexico. It was not felt in Brawley to the north.

No damage was reported. At Pasadena, Dr. Charles Richter of the California Institute of Technology Seismological Laboratory said a tremor was recorded at 9:37 a.m. Its magnitude was 5.5 and it was about 250 miles away in an undetermined direction, he said.

You Can't Beat Diplomacy of the Middle East

LOS ANGELES, Calif. — The diplomacy of the Middle East is unsurpassed.

Nine top Iranian government officials visited Los Angeles yesterday as guests of the State Department. Here's how Mohammed Moshiri of the Ministry of Labor put it.

"Our impression is that the United States is the most prosperous and progressive country in the world, that California is the most prosperous and progressive part of it and that the flower of it all is Los Angeles."

Seal Chest Unit to Give X-rays Here Next Week

The Christmas Seal Chest X-ray unit will arrive Tuesday in the Village for a three day stay.

District Public Health Nurse Marge Caylor said the first day will be devoted to school children until the evening hours. From 6-8 p.m., Tuesday, the unit will be available to the public. It will be parked downtown on Palm Canyon Drive.

Wednesday, the unit will stay at the downtown location, operating for the public from 8 a.m. till noon, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., and 6-8 p.m.

The last day, Thursday, will see the unit in the downtown location for its final six hours in the Village. Thursday's hours will be 9 a.m. till noon, and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Since the school projects take care of all children Tuesday, all X-rays taken downtown will be available for adults only.

Mrs. Stan Rosin is chairman in charge of registration at the unit.

OUR FUTURE BUSINESSMEN — Two months ago about 75 youths of Palm Springs and the surrounding desert area started out on their first business venture. They are the carrier boys of The Desert Sun who began delivering the paper to homes throughout the area when it became a daily newspaper.

Under the plan used by most newspapers throughout the United States carriers are not employed by the paper but are in business for themselves. They are known as "little merchants" because they buy the papers from the newspapers and sell them to the subscribers, along with delivery services, for a monthly charge set by the newspaper as its subscription rate for door-to-door delivery. There is a nice profit in it for the boys, particularly for those who give good service and build up their routes.

The Desert Sun is glad to be giving this opportunity to boys of the area who gain valuable experience for the years to come and earn their own spending money as they learn the essentials of business. Their training in the importance of good service, courtesy and faithfulness to duty will stand them in good stead many times in the future. Carrying papers under the "little merchants" plan is a character-builder as well.

You have probably met your Desert Sun carrier when he came to collect for his papers and service. If his service has been good, we hope you have complimented him and encouraged him. If it was not good we hope you pointed out to him the importance of dependability. You can help these boys get off to a good start, and the character of their work will be determined a great deal by what you say. Their parents are also a great help, of course, and the boys whose parents show an interest in their son's first business activity have a big advantage.

Many of our most prominent men are proud to relate how they got their first taste of business as a newspaper carrier boy, or selling newspapers. Most of them will also say that it was good experience, teaching them the importance of responsibility, pride and confidence in themselves that they can successfully do a job. It taught them care, they will say, and the importance of knowing how to handle and save money.

So I bespeak a word for the boy who brings you The Desert Sun every evening — from Tuesday through Saturday — and hope you will give him a smile and some encouragement the next time he drops in to see you.

North Vernon, Ind., Sun — In a recent article in The Saturday Evening Post, A. B. "Happy" Chandler, who sings and displays other histrionic talents in that turbulent Kentucky theater, is quoted as saying that if it hadn't been for the efforts of Three Kentuckians, who worked hard against him, he would have received the Democratic nomination for vice president in 1944. And would have become President of this land when Franklin D. Roosevelt died in April of 1945.

And is this be true, our lone comment on the matter must be made in the form of one of Winston Churchill's most widely quoted remarks.

"Never have so many owed so much to so few."

Palos Verdes Estates, Calif., News — During World War II, Spain was neutral. It meant to the Western Allies almost as much as if Spain had declared war on Germany. However, the Western Allies refuse to make that noble admission. It is no wonder that the Communist bloc opposes Spain's entrance into the United Nations, since Spain is courageous and honest enough not to recognize Communist governments. That is more than the Western bloc can say . . . and yet England and France are opposing Spain's entrance, while the United States is fiddling around without coming out openly by sponsoring Spain's membership in the United Nations.

It just does not make sense, especially not for Americans, when we have even our air and naval bases in Spain. How come?

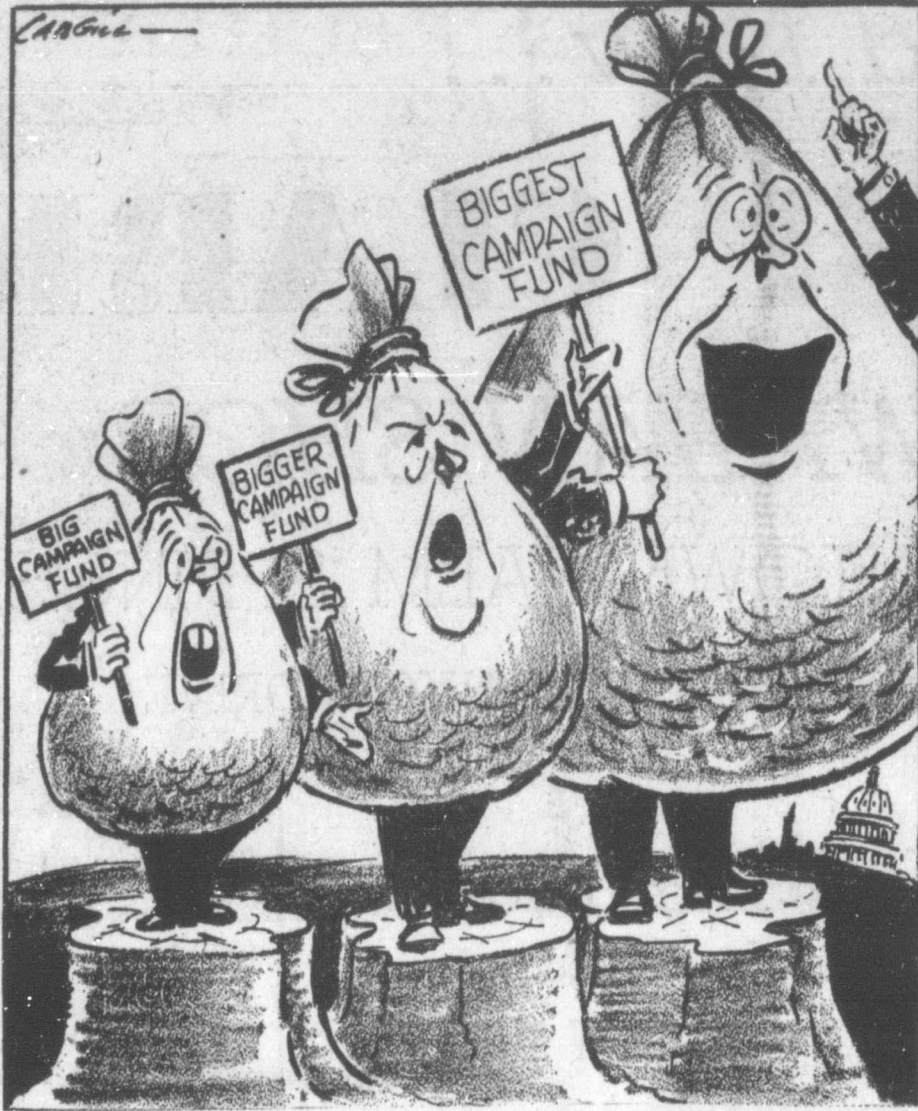

Elgin, Ill., Courier-News — If the Russian editors who have been visiting in this country possess any of the qualities of good newsmen they cannot help but go home impressed by what they have seen. They have been guests at American newspapers. They have seen how free newspapers publish, how freely they criticize the government at every level and how thoroughly they cover the news.

We cannot expect that the editors who have visited us will go back singing the praises of our way of life. Their freedom to print their observations will definitely be limited and it may be that they will write distorted versions of what they saw. Yet they did have a chance to see for themselves, they did rub up against the truth and some of that truth may stay with them. Their increased understanding may play an important part in the relationship between Russia and the United States some time in the future.

Charlestown, Ind., Courier — When newspapers reported recently the President had held a twenty-five minute conference with John Foster Dulles, and had made many suggestions for the carrying out of American foreign policy, the nation greeted the news with relief. The President is an expert in this field, and he is widely respected abroad and his prestige adds much to the serious consideration given his words in every part of the world.

The President is therefore a great asset to the American people in the field of international relations, and it is good to have him actively at the helm, in this field again.

Get busy now
or sure as fate,
Your Yuletide gift
will be too late.

And don't say that all of the communities along the highways didn't warn you. Even before a lot of housewives popped the Thanksgiving turkey into the oven, or wherever it goes before disappearing down the hatch, Christmas decorations were going up on lamp posts and strung across the street for all to see in most communities. Santa Claus is riding rampant. Of course, that is o.k. because the happy Yuletide season is supposed to start with the passing of the turkey. But some communities jumped the gun and had their Christmas tinsels up well before Thanksgiving — and, as a result, many are already looking a bit wind-blown.

AND STILL SPEAKING of Thanksgiving, I note where Fred Weigel in his stint in this column the day before, remarked happily about loading his wife and brood of six youngsters into the automobile and taking off for grandma's for the big feast. Now, this is Saturday and I wonder if grandma's house is the same again. Six of them, I should talk. I received word the day before of the arrival of the fourth grandson for Mrs. G. and myself. This happened in Hinsdale, Ill., and was the cause for added income for the telephone company. Mrs. G had to have all of the facts, not just the facts. I ran in that item about Fred here just to have an excuse to brag myself a little.

THE NEWS about Safe-Driving Week in Palm Springs makes me think of the old saying about the weather — a lot of people are talking about it but only a few, headed by Chief of Police A. G. Kettman and School Transportation Superintendent George Bond, are doing something about it. Well, after so long a time, they did something about the weather. Perhaps there is hope that they can do something about the reckless drivers. But I read the other day where it isn't always recklessness that piles up the autos on the highways. Many drivers have gone so long without an accident that they are lulled into a false sense of security and then it happens. Driving these days is one case where eternal vigilance applies.

STARTING SUNDAY is National Prosperity Week. They had better have it now because after the Christmas shopping is completed there are going to be a lot of people who will be flatter than Doris suggested. Which, for some reason, reminds me that one of the more observant gentlemen in this office remarked the other day that he didn't mind the cold weather a bit. It brought out the sweaters.

CHICAGO — Former Democratic National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell on whether he favored a two-party system in the South: "Definitely. There's a lot of those people who if they lived in Peoria would be Republicans."

ATLANTA — Roscoe Reans, expert on hunting with a bow and arrow, on how it is done: "You start trying to think like the animal you're after. That's what does the trick."

CIVIL DEFENSE NOTES

"Accentuate the positive" is the hair restorer which graces the watchword for civil defense on Federal, State and local levels, as citizens face another uncertain year with international problems still unsolved.

Val Peterson, Federal Civil Defense administrator, says in a recent bulletin, "It is the joint responsibility of all of us to keep our national thinking on an even keel, to help people look danger in the face — but never give in to it." Actually that is what Americans have been doing ever since the first settlers saw the first tomahawks, and preparedness shouldn't be any more difficult now than it was then.

CIVIL DEFENSE and Disaster Preparedness are combined operations in the Palm Springs city government set-up, as it is generally found that being prepared for emergencies that never arise is much better than not being prepared when they do arise.

A major portion of the city's defense organization is the Ground Observer Corps, which, under Air Force supervision, scans the sky continuously for that small plane which might come in along the mountains to escape the radar network of the coast.

Villagers can serve their country and their community by joining this Corps and giving three hours a week — information about this vital service may be obtained at the library.

HOUSEHOLDERS, TOO can help in preparedness as the program is filtered down from Federal headquarters at Battle Creek, to the State Defense Office in Sacramento, to the county, the city, the individual home. All of the following projects are good sense for any disaster which might strike at any time.

For instance — do you have three or four days' supply of food stored safely in your home? Suggested lists are available at the city manager's office, and may be had for the asking.

DO YOU HAVE a really adequate first aid supply? Not the assortment of aspirin, toothpaste and

It Happened Last Night

NEW YORK—Miss Cleo Moore, the Long-Kiss actress, is probably going to be elected "Sing Sing Sweetheart" or "The Prisoners' Pinup" since she started advocating that convicts be allowed to spend weekends with their wives or girl friends.

"I've already got a lot of fan mail from prisoners who want to talk the whole thing over with me and want to make an appointment," blond Cleo told me during a visit to New York.

Miss Moore insists that she's totally unselfish in this matter and that if she doesn't accomplish it now . . .

"Just wait till I become Governor of Louisiana!" . . .

Pointing out that in Mexico, France, Switzerland, and several South American countries, the prisoners are permitted to see their mates for a day or two instead of just a half hour through a screen, Miss Moore says, "Here in the United States we don't pay the least bit of attention to a man's emotions."

"Would you have husbands visiting women prisoners?" I asked Cleo.

"Certainly! Women need somebody to love them more than men," said Cleo, bouncily.

"Would you have women visiting husbands at Alcatraz where women aren't permitted now at all?" . . . "No, the very bad prisoners should lose the privilege."

Perhaps at this time I should let you in on a secret. Cleo's in a movie, "Hold Back Tomorrow," in which she plays a gal who visits a prisoner in an unnamed country. In fact, she's been in several prison movies and feels like an ex-convict much of the time.

"I can see the good sense of having special guest houses for prisoners when their wives come to see them," Cleo said.

"Then when the prisoners come out they would be normal and able to lead normal lives again."

Cleo claims that she became interested in this cause after Sheila Graham's husband, whom Sheila calls "Bow-Wow," and whom other people call "Bow" for short, began advancing it. He is a social welfare expert who argues that womanless, loveless prisoners are being punished beyond decency.

"Don't forget that in some countries, men are even permitted to leave the prison for a few days for good behavior," Cleo mentioned.

Cleo continues to insist that, as the ex-wife of Huey Long's son Palmer, she's going to run for Governor of Louisiana.

"But I have to wait till I'm 30. I'm going to run and I'm going to win," she said.

"I'll make you a bet of a long kiss you'll never run," I said.

"Why?" . . . "Because when you're 30, you'll never admit it," I replied.

"I'll admit it, but the question is," she said, "when I'm 30, will you still want to collect the bet?"

Washington Report

WASHINGTON— President Eisenhower is going to be "drafted" to run for another term.

The Republican National Committee will ardently urge that in a formal declaration at its pre-convention conference in Chicago on December 1 . . .

The resolution will stress the vital importance of the President's continuing in the White House — if his health permits.

The plan to make this powerful public plea to him to again be the GOP standard bearer is largely based on a series of private polls made by the National Committee in key voting areas.

In every one of them the President far outdistanced all other Republican possibilities.

This included the agricultural Midwest and the South.

In the farm belt, where GOP disaffection is reputedly vehement and widespread, the poll showed the President's popularity virtually as high as in 1952.

The South reported a decline in his standing, but it still is way ahead of any other Republican prospect: including Vice-President Nixon; Chief Justice Warren, who was closest to the President; Senator William Knowland; former Governor Thomas Dewey, and others.

The President has not been told about this significant survey. That is in accordance with the policy laid down by the Cabinet weeks ago that he is not to be "presured" regarding next year's election battle.

But party leaders have carefully studied the figures and been deeply impressed by them. One result of this is the decision that the National Committee issue a "draft" call at the Chicago meeting.

That will be done with the approval of White House Assistant Sherman Adams, Treasury Secretary George Humphrey, and Attorney General Herbert Brownell, who wield the greatest political influence in the inner councils.

The fact that they favor this move is of utmost moment.

NOTE: Michigan's top Republican circles are torn by a scorching factional fray in which Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield is squarely in the middle. He is backing one powerful group against another equally potent.

Their feud is so bitter that one faction has refused to make its usual large contributions to the party for months. Summerfield's continuance in the Cabinet is at stake in this 'back stage' clash, which has become so explosive that National Chairman Leonard Hall personally intervened, but so far without results. Leading the war against Summerfield are State Chairman John Fekens, Detroit, and National Committeeman Clifford O'Sullivan, Port Huron.

MORE POLITICALS — Maryland's Governor Theodore Roosevelt McKeldin, who nominated the President in 1952, will spearhead the drive to "draft" him in '56 . . . At a gay party at the Democratic National Committee's pre-convention meeting, former President Truman quipped to a group of old associates, "I am physically fit, mentally confused, financially embarrassed, but otherwise in fine shape and rarin' to go" . . . Representative Glenn Davis (R., Wis.) has set January 1 as the date when he will announce whether he will run against Senator Alexander Wiley, former Chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, in next Spring's Republican primary. Davis is making no secret that if he challenges Wiley, it will be with the backing of Senator

Joe McCarthy . . . Representative Cliff Young (R., Nev.) has apparently decided not to tackle Senator Alan Bible (D., Nev.) after all. Young made a lot of gestures of being a Senatorial candidate, but has stopped doing that of late. He is hinting he will wait until 1958 and seek the seat of Senator George Malone (R., Nev.), who has been intimating he plans to retire.

FALL-OUT—The Atomic Energy Commission is going to let down the secrecy bars a trifle. It will hold a semi-public seminar on power reactors, with Chairman Lewis Strauss leading the unusual discussion. Star of the series, starting on December 6, will be Admiral Hyman Rickover, builder of the first atomic submarine and now playing a key role in the fabulous drive to develop a nuclear plane. One of intriguing topics of the seminar is the possible use of atomic reactors for large-scale distillation of sea water . . . A power reactor has been promised Nationalist China. If the plan materializes the reactor will be sent to Formosa sometime next year.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

TWO GLADIATORS startled Nero and his court with their valiant exploits. Forty to fifty competitors at a time perished under their swords. Crowds cheered their every move. Finally, officials decided to give the two boys a real test.

And Nero himself burst into their dressing room. "Next Sunday," he gloated, "we're putting you up against a hundred hungry lions!"

The big day dawned bright and clear. The arena was sold out. And as the two gladiators met, one began, "You should have been with me the other night! I'm sitting in my studio when you should come barging in but the Empress. She was alone — and had on a slinky dress and wore some intoxicating perfume."

"Holy smoke!" exclaimed the other. "Go on, go on!"

"I'll have to finish the story later," yawned the narrator. "Here come the hundred lions!"

Western Air Lines Offers Escape from Cold

FAST ESCAPE with heads down and holding on to toppers are the above Seattleites boarding the Western Air Lines' Champagne flight to escape the dampness, rain, snow and cold of that great Northwest city for Palm Springs and warm sunshine. The "Champagne" flight which is actually called the "Californian" by Western Air Lines is a scheduled flight in great demand by residents of Seattle and other cities in the Northwest and Canada, with flights by the same airlines.

SUN COUNTRY doesn't call for heavy overcoats nor is the wind howling in icy gales as passengers of Western Air Lines' "Champagne" Flight from Seattle or San Francisco deplane in Palm Springs. There seems to be a happy smile on the face of those alighting in contrast with the picture on the left where most everyone is wrapped in heavy coats and holding onto toppers.

CHAMPAGNE AND HOW and that's Howard Morris, owner of the Palm Springs Music Company and former resident of Vancouver, B.C. He is shown above receiving two glasses of the bubbling liquid from lovely Stewardess Eve Beatty not because he loves champagne so much but because — well, the flight to Seattle from Palm Springs doesn't take so long. Remember?

MERCY FLIGHT and Heaven sent was the opinion of Mrs. Ethel Dewey of Cathedral City aboard Western Air Lines' "Champagne" Flight to Seattle and the bedside of her daughter, gravely ill in Bremerton, Washington. Seated on her right, is Mrs. Mace Gazda enroute to Los Angeles where she boarded a plane for Chicago and reunion with her husband, Dr. Gazda, for a Thanksgiving Day celebration.

Western Air Lines Offer Escape from Ice and Snow

Story and Pictures
By BILL RASHALL

At last Palm Springs is on the major aerial map of the nation!

This fact, and it's a beautiful fact too, struck home with terrific impact following an aerial trip as a passenger on Western Air Lines' "Champagne" Flight to Seattle and return. It was a fast deluxe journey replete with wonderment at the swiftness with which the giant DC-6B transported its passengers non-stop from here (with a short thirty minute layover in Los Angeles for additional passengers) to the Winter city of Seattle.

THE GREATEST impression gained was that at last a major air line has found that Palm Springs has developed in population and interest for many of the residents of the great Northwest to merit such service by Western Air Lines.

Learned also was the great number of persons who use the giant flying bird, operated by efficient and courteous crews, for fast business trips to their homes in Seattle, San Francisco, Portland and other cities that Western Air Lines feeds into this flight of this fast but most comfortable aerial journey.

FOUND ABOARD on the flight North was Mrs. Ethel Dewey of Cathedral City who found this new service a "blessing from Heaven." The reason, she was flying to the bedside of a gravely ill daughter, Mrs. Mace Gazda, Palm Springs and Chicago socialite, flew to Los Angeles where she quickly boarded a plane for Chicago and a Thanksgiving Day reunion with her husband Dr. Gazda.

Howard Morris, owner of the Palm Springs Music company, flew all the way to Seattle as a good traveling companion with the writer. "I'm going to use this flight as often as possible for quick visits to my former home in Vancouver," he declared as a gracious and most beautiful stewardess filled his glass with sparkling champagne and then later placed a most appetizing filet mignon dinner on his portable tray. He consumed every bit of the excellently prepared meal.

In Seattle talked with Mrs. Eve Brooks. She complained about the ice and snow — the frozen water pipes at her home in West Vancouver.

"THAT CHAMPAGNE flight is the fastest escape from ice and snow into the warm sun of Palm Springs that I know of today. Bill (that's her husband) and I plan to use the flight right after Thanksgiving. I know Bill plans to use the flight regularly to attend business meetings here." Mr. Brooks is a director of the giant Powell River Paper company of Powell River, Canada.

Mrs. Jack Kenaston pointed out that the flights now scheduled by Western Air Lines are indispensable to this resort area. "My husband and I use that flight often from here to Seattle and to San Francisco."

CHARLES LINDEMAN, publisher of the giant Post-Intelligencer of Seattle, who with his wife spends lengthy vacations here annually, plans to use the flight whenever necessary to attend meetings in Seattle.

San Francisco and Portland, where another Champagne flight stops to pick up passengers for the Sun country, which Palm Springs is called, are well acquainted with this Western Air Lines Service. Harry Reid, Jr., partner in the firm of Wade and Reid of Palm Springs, has been using the service since its initial flight, September 25.

THE FLIGHT TO Seattle from Palm Springs takes approximately five hours and the return non-stop flight from that city consumes about five minutes more.

Of course, Howard Morris and the writer wanted to make a stop in the City by the Golden Gate which was duly accomplished and one can so schedule their return flight in that manner.

The luxury DC-6B reaches for the high altitudes of between 16,000 and 18,000 feet where the transport sails along without the slightest discomfort. The cabin inside is pressurized to approximately 4,000 foot elevation and quite comfortable for any one.

SAFETY OF THE passengers and the plane plays the most important role. There are the pilot, co-pilot, radio engineer and ship engineer who comprise the operating crew. In addition, there are two busy stewardesses who serve every want of the passengers.

It's a fast 20th century escape from just anywhere from which one may wish to escape. It's the greatest escape, as Mrs. Brooks said, from "ice and snow to the beautiful sun country of Palm Springs."

HONEYMOONERS from Seattle to Palm Springs and the Oasis Hotel are shown above. They are newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. William Koehler of Seattle. They were married November 18 and decided on the most appropriate aerial flight that befitted a bride and her groom — "a Champagne Flight" to Palm Springs.

"WE USE THIS CHAMPAGNE flight often," declared Dr. Van Chambers of San Francisco, pediatrician, seated beside his wife, Marilyn. They boarded the Western Air Lines' "Champagne" flight from Seattle at San Francisco for a visit with the young doctor's parents at Palm Desert, Dr. Stanley Chambers.

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

The bright face of December is peeking around the corner . . . Along Palm Canyon Drive . . . windows are gay with gifts . . . and here and there a Christmas tree . . . that's tinted and hung with gay baubles . . . so it won't be too incongruous with the palm trees . . . and the bright blue desert sky . . . With only a month to go . . . shoppers are beginning to scurry a bit . . . for nothing goes faster than the time . . . between now and Christmas . . . with so many things to do . . . It's a time of planning and preparation . . . of suppressed excitement and merry secrets . . . and the holiday mood bubbling over into many a gay party . . .

From beautiful Hong Kong . . . comes the first card from Jerry and Arthur Bergh, who are world-touring . . . Jerry writes "Believe it or not . . . I'm missing P. S. and our friends there . . . We are resting and having fun too . . . on the first portion of our world tour!"

Bertine Treat . . . who has been in town for the Barraclochs' party . . . (she reports that the new restaurant is quite the show place of Los Angeles) . . . and the Rudy Halm's party . . . headed for Palm Springs for Thanksgiving Day . . . Bertine's daughter and son-in-law Cornelia and James Chambers . . . and their two small daughters Sandra and Sharon Ann . . . of Laguna Beach . . . had Thanksgiving dinner with her . . .

CELEBRATING their 25th anniversary at Deep Well Ranch on Thanksgiving evening were Mr. and Mrs. Julius Fligelman.

Family Day at Oasis Thanksgiving

Oasis Hotel always has been known as a family hotel, and it is evidenced this Thanksgiving holiday time. Arriving from Seattle mid-month to stay through until Easter were long time Oasis guests Mr. and Mrs. I. U. Dickey and Mr. and Mrs. Volney Richmond. For this Thanksgiving weekend Mr. and Mrs. Howard Merritt, relatives of the Richmonds, came up from San Diego to share turkey with the group. The Merritts will join their family here again on Christmas.

Also at the Oasis for Thanksgiving and through the month are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bowen and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. McGurdy, of Seattle. Flying in their own plane from Spokane for their first visit to the Oasis are Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Burrows.

Among the many returnees to the Oasis this holiday are Charles Frankland (President of Pacific National Bank in Seattle), Mrs. Frankland, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee. In fact many now at the Oasis are business men on the Board of Directors of the Pacific Nat'l Bank there.

Families bringing their children for this week at the Oasis are Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Spalding and sons, Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Birtcher, Corona del Mar; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Babeaux, Arcadia, and the Earl G. Johnstones of Santa Barbara, with the E. G. Johnstones Jr., and children.

Wallace Myers, past governor of Rotary International, and his wife and daughter, all of San Anselmo are staying through the month.

El Mirador Serves 600 Thanksgiving

Beautiful El Mirador Room and the Starlight Patio of El Mirador Hotel were filled to overflow with over 600 Thanksgiving Day guests having dinner. A wonderful meal set out by Chef Knaak drew many local townspeople into the hotel and also many guests from out of town. The reservations for dinner were completely filled on Monday and a few people were lucky enough to get a small table set up at the last minute on the Starlight Patio.

A beautiful centerpiece of Autumn colors adorned the entrance table into the dining room highlighting the entire room. The Horn of Plenty, of silver and gold cloth, poured fruit and vegetables onto the table. The background of the centerpiece was created with flaming oak leaves, wheat and palm husks sprayed with gold paint. The entire piece was flecked with gold and silver and the lighting gave a very unusual effect of dancing lights.

Joan Wallace is Feature Editor of College Paper

The Whitworthian, weekly student newspaper of Whitworth college, has received its seventh All-American award since 1951 for the Spring semester, 1955, according to information received from the Associated Collegiate Press.

Miss Joan Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Wallace of Thousand Palms, was feature editor of the newspaper during this time.

The Whitworthian garnered a total of 1725 points out of a possible 1800 for its high rating. The highest possible score was awarded for coverage, and recognition was also given style and typography.

Miss Wallace, a senior education major, is also active in the Future Teachers of America, Whitworth Christian fellowship, and Life Service.

Miss Wallace was graduated from Palm Springs high school with the class of 1951.

In the Village for Thanksgiving

Among the guests spending the Thanksgiving holiday at the new La Paz were: Edward J. Ohanian of Beverly Hills; Miss Patricia Nicholas of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koenan of Studio City; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gannon of Azusa; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Williams, who are on a world tour.

Also back for a repeat visit were Mrs. J.B.T. Campbell and family of Los Angeles, who have spent the past 14 Thanksgivings in Palm Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hancock entertained Mr. Hancock's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Walters, of La Canada as guests at their home Wednesday to Friday.

Contest Winner Vacations Here

When Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Costa of Morgan Hill visited Palm Springs this week it was a kind of second honeymoon for them as they honeymooned here 15 years ago. This time, they had with them their two children and their parents.

Costa, who is a prominent vineyardist in Northern California, won a contest staged by the California Grange News and the family spent four days at the Pueblo. They left Thursday morning.

Holiday Decor for Club Dinner

A Thanksgiving theme in table decorations was used for the monthly dinner meeting of the Palm Springs Business Womens Club at Laureys Steak Ranch Monday evening. Decorations were by Milly Hoffmeyer and Mary Sullivan.

Georgia Kettman was in charge of arrangements for the dinner which was attended by 70 club members and guests.

Circle Ruth Has Business Meeting

Circle Ruth of the Community Church held their Tuesday meeting at the home of Mrs. Ruth Passow at 425 Stevens Road. Martha Irwin was associate hostess, and there were over 20 in attendance.

Following the business meeting there was a social hour, with the hostesses serving cake and coffee in the patio.

PALM DESERT

By GRETCHEN CHEESEMAN

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Allgoewer are spending the winter in their desert home, instead of a few weeks as originally planned. Over the week end, they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Telmine and Mr. and Mrs. Mario Telmine - Mario Telmine is the president of Patterson Frozen Foods. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Crypts were also with the Allgoewer party, as well as Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allgoewer who spent the last ten days in the desert.

Mr. and Mrs. George Walling of Atherton and Palm Desert entertained Mr. and Mrs. Joshua J. Jarris of Palo Alto for several days. Mr. Jarris's birthday was on Sunday and a small group of friends gathered at the Walling home to celebrate the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Markley are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. John Schweifler of Yosemite Valley this week. Mrs. Schweifler and Mrs. Markley are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolen Allen have occupied their Sun Lodge for the past two weeks. Their son and his family joined them for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bingman, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Ward and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Smith, former residents of Yosemite Valley joined Mr. and Mrs. Schweifler for a reunion in the Markley home on Chicory Street.

Mrs. Hudson Werder had a family Thanksgiving dinner at Shadow Mountain Club. Her guests included her son, Fred Werder, Mrs. Werder and their two daughters, Wendy and Heather, Mrs. E.

H. Wadewitz and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Callender, Miss Carol McLaughlin and Mr. Dan Branigan.

Dr. and Mrs. Stanley O. Chambers have their entire family around them for the Thanksgiving weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley O. Chambers, Jr. and daughter Linda, Dr. and Mrs. Van Chambers of San Francisco and George Chambers, Stanley Jr. and George have purchased 80 acres on the Strube Ranch and will plant the entire acreage in citrus trees.

Mr. Fred Sieman, who recently returned from a three month tour of Europe brought back a real "movie" story of his trip. These have been shown before several social groups lately. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Emmons and Captain and Mrs. A. Swanson, all of Rancho Mirage have entertained friends with this splendid travelogue.

Mr. and Mrs. Major Slater of "Sage and Sun" will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Arch Mease of Los Altos, Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Polfree of Carmel, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bowman San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Buck of Beverly Hills for the four day holiday.

Cocktails and dinner at Firecliff Lodge the night before Thanksgiving was a gay affair - guests of the Lodge and many Palm Desert residents enjoyed the evening - Mr. and Mrs. Hal Kapp, with their piano and violin music added much to this warm and festive occasion. Vigil to Defend Graham in Mass Murder Case Trial

DENVER — Former U. S. Atty. Charles S. Vigil, who successfully prosecuted Colorado's most notorious gamblers, will defend 23-year-old John Gilbert Graham against the charge he murdered his mother by bombing the airliner in which 44 persons died.

District Judge Edgar J. Keating, who declared Graham indigent and unable to engage competent counsel on his own, also appointed John J. Gibbons, a prominent criminal defense attorney, and Paul Weadick of Denver to the defense late Friday.

Graham is charged with the murder of his mother, Mrs. Daisey King, 54, a passenger on the United Air Lines DC6B that exploded and crashed near Longmont, Colo., on Nov. 1, killing everyone aboard. Graham was charged with planting a dynamite time bomb in his mother's luggage after insuring her life for $37,500. Keating said he would confer with the defense counsel today and give them copies of the criminal information for study. He urged them to confer with Graham at county jail today or Sunday for preparation of the defendant's arraignment on Monday.

Cross Case May be Given Public

WASHINGTON, — Senate investigators may eventually disclose the secret testimony which helped push Hugh W. Cross into resigning as chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission, informed sources said today.

Cross quit Friday, giving reasons of health and his "regard and respect" for the ICC and the administration.

EXCEPT FOR THIS, he said in a letter to President Eisenhower, "I would remain and defend to the end against the baseless charges which have been made against me before a congressional committee."

"The mere pendency of such charges," he said, "impairs my further service on the commission and its proper functioning in the public interest."

The charges have never been made public officially.

The Senate investigating subcommittee questioned Cross in secret November 15 on his connection with a contract awarded a new firm to transfer mail and passengers between Chicago's eight railroad stations.

AS IS CUSTOMARY with closed sessions, the transcript of testimony has not been released. However, it could be made public by a majority vote of the subcommittee.

There was also a possibility that the group might refer the record to the Justice Department to follow up any leads in the case.

Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said in Little Rock after Cross resigned that he saw no need for further investigation by the subcommittee. Earlier, the group had voted to hold public hearings.

THE CHICAGO contract had been held for 102 years by the Parmelee Transportation Co. This fall it was awarded to Railroad Transportation Service, Inc., headed by John L. Keeshin, a Chicago truck operator.

Cross, emerging from the closed hearing on November 15, told reporters he had discussed a job with Keeshin, but insisted that it had nothing to do with the contract. He said the talks took place "several years ago" in connection with a proposed bus line.

That Was Too Much

MEXICO CITY, — Mrs. Ofelia Castanon de Juarez told police she never would have called them just because her husband was beating her but said it was just too much when he let his mother and brother help.

Council Approves Improving Lot

CITY COUNCIL gave unanimous approval Wednesday night to the City Manager's recommendation to repave parking spaces on the former Pevler property, at Amado Road and Indian Avenue, and make other improvements preparatory to making a free, public off-street parking lot available.

Since there will be neither a metered lot nor construction of a fire station on the old Safeway lot before the end of the winter season, Peterson said in his recommendation, a safe, well-lighted off-street lot is the most desirable way to use the space.

Work will start in about four days, following the weekend rush of tourists.

Monkey's Painting Mystifies Art Lovers

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, — Visitors to an art exhibit today voiced mixed reaction to a "primitive" painting signed "A.P.E. Van Troot, Djurgarden."

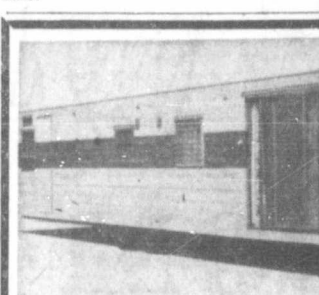

Most of the visitors studied the canvas with puzzlement when they looked more closely at the signature. It was painted by a monkey who resides in Stockholm's Djurgarden Zoo.

The journalist who promoted the stunt admitted, however, that the signature was a forgery. "I could not teach the monkey to sign his name," he said.

Horse Collar Firm Admits Auto is Here

Just Country Boy with No Political Comment Says HST

SEATTLE, — Former President Harry S. Truman said today he was "just a country boy in town, and I don't want to talk politics right now."

Mr. Truman flew into Seattle on Friday aboard the private plane owned by millionaire oilman Ed Pauley to do a little fund raising for his memorial library.

Reporters who greeted him at the airport tried to get him to talk politics but he declined. Mr. Truman is scheduled to speak here tonight at a dinner to

SOMETHING NEW under the sun...and stars

A Dome Car with two decks — and every seat 'under glass'

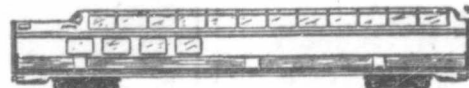

"Sky-wide and handsome" is what you'll say about Southern Pacific's unique new Dome Lounge Car, when you first step inside. It's built on two levels, or terraces, but is open to the heavens from stem to stern. (Incidentally, we've also put in extra capacity air conditioning, and lightly tinted glass, so that it's always pleasant inside, no matter what the weather outside.)

One third of the car is a high-ceiling cocktail lounge, while up a short flight of steps is a terrace deck with many more comfortable seats for enjoying refreshments and unparalleled views of the scenery.

A ride in one of these new Dome Cars is like a ride in a convertible with the top down — but without the wind.

You'll find a new Dome Lounge Car on the San Joaquin Daylight between Los Angeles and San Francisco via the Valley Route, the Shasta Daylight between San Francisco and Portland, and between San Francisco and Ogden on the Overland.

We invite you to try one soon — and we hope you'll find it an indication that, for both passenger and freight, we are trying to do a modern, progressive job of railroading.

Baptist Church to Meet in New Location Dec. 4

Announcement has been made by the Rev. Glen Williams, pastor of the First Southern Baptist Church of Cathedral City, that the church will start meeting in its new church location the first Sunday in December.

The church has recently purchased property located on Cathedral Canyon Drive between Grove and "A" Streets in Cathedral City. The residence on the property has been converted into facilities to be used by the church until a permanent church building is erected on the site.

The church has been meeting in the Town Hall for the past two years since its organization. There will be no change in the time schedule of the services. Sunday School for all age groups meets at 9:45 with Morning Worship following at 11. Training Union for all ages meets at 6:45 followed by the Evening Worship at 7:30. Prayer meeting is held weekly at 7:00 on Friday evening.

Adequate parking space is provided on the property, and a very cordial invitation is extended to all to worship in all services.

'Wealth of Spirit' to be Subject of Sunday's Sermon

Matthew 25, verse 31. ("His Lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord"), is the Bible text which Dr. Irma Glen will use in connection with her topic, "The Wealth of the Spirit," Sunday morning at 10:45 a.m.

The regular weekly service of the Church of Religious Science, Dr. Ernest Holmes, dean and founder, is held at the El Paseo Theatre, 810 North Palm Canyon Drive. Mid-week meetings are held at the minister's residence, 1110 Buena Vista Drive, at 8 p.m., on Thursday evenings.

This newly organized church is the first and only authorized Religious Science Church to hold regular Sunday morning services here on the desert. The minister is a permanent resident of the Village and will be at hand at all times to serve the members.

The Religious Science textbook, Science of Mind, by Dr. Ernest Holmes, together with the Bible and the Bibles of all the world, form the basis of the teaching. This week the Bible text is correlated with the following excerpt from the textbook:

"When a man's thought rests entirely upon himself, he becomes abnormal and unhappy; but when he gives himself with enthusiasm to any legitimate purpose, losing himself in the thing which he is doing, he becomes normal and happy. Only as much life enters into us as we can conceive, and we conceive of life — in the larger sense — only when there is complete abandonment to it. Let the one who is sad or depressed find some altruistic purpose into which he may pour his whole being and he will find a new inflow of life of which he has never dreamed."

City Buys Three New Police Cars

The Palm Springs police will be driving four new patrol cars as a result of city council action.

Council passed a motion approving City Manager Robert W. Peterson's recommendation to accept the bid of Ben Cowan Ford, and the transfer of $5,119.33 from the motor vehicle replacement fund for the purchase of four 1956 Ford four door sedans with automatic shifts.

Three patrol cars presently used by the department will be turned in as trades, and the additional car will be bought without trade-in in keeping with the policy of adding one unit as necessity requires.

In similar action, a half-ton Ford pick-up truck was okayed by council, and $1,551.22 was transferred. The pick-up will be used to replace the 1937 Mack Junior presently used by the sewerage department.

Councilman Jerry Sanborn cast the only dissenting vote.

CAR THEFT REPORTED

Theft of his car parked in a service station lot at 305 North Indian Avenue, was reported to police Thursday by G. Walter Spencer of San Leandro. The key had been left in the ignition, it was reported.

CONFIDENT LIVING

By Norman Vincent Peale

How to Live to a Ripe Old Age

Have you seen those interesting advertisements for the new automobiles featuring safety belts, padded instrument panels and other features to protect the driver and his passengers in the event of accident?

These are all much-needed improvements, but an even better way to protect every driver and every passenger is for everyone to make a real effort to avoid accidents altogether. That's quite a job because there were nearly ten million mishaps and 1,250,000 were disabled more than one day. Of course, the cost of these accidents mounted into the billions of dollars.

Shocking, isn't it? That's why the President's Committee for Traffic Safety has designated this next Thursday, December 1, as "S-D Day" or Safe Driving Day, to remind the public of the importance of this subject.

Psychologists and psychiatrists trace many accidents to disturbed and worried minds. Driving a powerful automobile is a strain and traffic today would even, as the old saying goes, try the patience of a saint.

A New York surgeon and authority on psychosomatic medicine, Dr. Lester L. Coleman, has discovered one solution to this problem. He carries a Bible in the glove compartment of his car. When he is caught in a traffic jam, or sometimes even when stopped by a red light, he takes out the Bible and reads a short passage. He finds that this not only reduces irritation, but carries him away from the immediate problems of coping with traffic. When the cars begin to move again, he is relaxed and his driving efficiency is stepped up. He is in full control of himself and so able to drive more carefully and safely.

Dr. Coleman's technique is one of all of us might try with good results. Traffic being what it is, we can get in not a little Bible reading that way.

Another technique was recommended in a sermon by a minister who had been shocked by the number of accidents people in his congregation had going to and from church. He told his congregation to continue the hymn singing in their cars going home and gave them a suggested list of hymns and songs: At 45 miles an hour he advised "Highways Are Happy Ways." At 55, he recommended, "I'm But a Stranger Here; Heaven Is My Home," and, at 65, "Nearer My God to Thee." For 75 mile speed he thought "When the Roll Is Called Up Yonder, I'll Be There" just right. And his final choice for 85 miles an hour was "Lord, I'm Coming Home."

His remarks were, of course, intended to be facetious, but I'm sure his listeners got his point.

There is one simple practice often overlooked these days, and it's unfortunate too, since it is almost a magical how it can prevent accidents, and that is just plain politeness. I talked with a man who had never had even a minor accident in 25 years of driving. "What is your secret?" I asked.

"It's very simple," he replied.

"Just two rules. Obey the traffic laws to the letter and always be polite."

That is a very commonsense policy. Traffic regulations are developed out of long experience and are not designed to hamper you, but rather to protect you and expedite your movements. As for politeness, it's simply the employment of the most sensible rule of life ever made, "As ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise."

If you want to live to a ripe old age, this is one way to do it.

Emphasis on Christmas Features this Year's Cards

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1 — Some of the first Christmas cards carried these messages: "And many sweet returns," "Here's Christmas come again," "Be privileged to see," and "To my friend."

But who started the business of sending greetings to friends on Christmas? Nobody knows for sure, but it's likely it was an English shop-keeper named Henry Cole.

Way back in 1843, Cole commissioned a Royal Academy artist, John Colcott Horsley, to design some cards of greeting suitable for the Christmas season. Horsley's design showed a Victorian family gathered at the feed board and added a few words of sentiment about giving to the have-nots on the day of Christ's birth.

COLE'S PRINTER struck off a thousand copies and Cole sent a few to his friends and offered the rest for sale in his shop. They were the earliest examples of the now-familiar Christmas card that have come to light.

Some of Cole's cards are included in a vast Hallmark collection

Science Lesson Sermon Sunday Denounces Devil

"Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong." These words of firm counsel, given by Paul to the Corinthians in his first epistle (16:13) will be the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches. "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" is the subject.

Isaiah reveals God's purpose to destroy bondage when he says, "The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying . . . I will break the Assyrian in my land, . . . then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders. This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth: and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations" (14:24-26).

Mary Baker Eddy declares in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," "That evil or matter has neither intelligence nor power, is the doctrine of absolute Christian Science, and this is the great truth which strips all disguise from error." "The good you do and embody gives you the only power obtainable. Evil is not power." (pp. 454, 192).

Homeless Church Group Finally Gets New Home

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — This is the story of a congregation without a church and a church without a congregation and how they got together.

The congregation is made up of people who live in the small mining town of Forbes Road, some 30 miles from here. They lost their church building three years ago when a court ruled their deed invalid.

Since then, the worshippers have been meeting in a bleak concrete recreation building.

"With a barber shop in one end and a coal-burning cooking stove for heat, you can imagine what kind of a place it is," said the Rev. Clyde Cottom.

There were no brighter prospects until this past Summer, when a member of the congregation heard of an unusual offer concerning a quaint little church in suburban Pittsburgh which had been vacated because the membership outgrew it.

The church was owned by a Pittsburgh stock broker, Philip Wolfers, who bought the white, steeped structure "just for the heck of it."

Wolfers ran a newspaper ad offering to sell the church at a bargain to some deserving group. He received more than 100 inquiries in all, one from the Forbes Road Union Church.

We still find snow scenes, like we do in the "over the hills and through the woods to grandmother's house we go" cards that have been coming out for many years.

Santa still is in evidence in many of the cheaper cards and in some of the more expensive ones.

Birds, though, seem to be disappearing. Half a century ago they were much in evidence. Gone also are the silky borders of fringe, the lace panels and the gold edging that added up to elegance in the old-time cards.

Emphasis this year is mostly where it should be. On Christmas itself. The spirit of love and fellowship.

Voice of Prophecy Radio Group to be Here Dec. 3

Duane Grimstad, pastor of the local Seventh-day Adventist church disclosed today that plans have been finalized that will bring the Voice of Prophecy radio group to Palm Springs for a personal appearance Saturday, December 3.

The Voice of Prophecy is a world-wide broadcast, bringing the Bible to millions. The program is heard every Sunday over two networks, Mutual and ABC and is released by more than 500 radio stations in the United States and Canada. These gospel messages are proclaimed in seventeen different languages throughout Latin America, Europe, the Middle East, India, Australia, the Philippines, and Japan.

Free Voice of Prophecy Bible Correspondence courses for home study are offered in 60 languages and dialects, around the world. These Bible courses include lessons for boys and girls as well as adults.

The Voice of Prophecy radio program was the dream of a tall, thin, goodlooking man named H. M. S. Richards. Richards set about to try his hand at broadcasting the gospel message. He ran against problems but he met them with his knees and never gave up. That was 25 years ago. Today, Richards is the director and speaker of the international Voice of Prophecy radio program, the second largest religious broadcast in the world.

At the quarter century mark in religious radio broadcasting Richards has for his supporting cast, J. O. Iversen, associate speaker, The King's Heralds, male quartet, Del Delker, contralto, and Bradford Braley, organist. All will be here for the Palm Springs appearance, Pastor Grimstad said.

The time of meeting is set for 2:30 p.m., Saturday, December 3, at the Palm Springs Seventh-day Adventist church, Riverside Drive and Camino Real. All are welcome, no admission will be charged.

CC Community Church to Mark First Sunday

The Community Church of Cathedral City will observe the first Sunday in Advent tomorrow by asking a kindergarten child to light the first of the four Advent candles at both 9:30 and 11 a.m. It invites friends also to lend unusual Bibles before 9:30 a.m. on Sunday morning.

At the eleven o'clock service Dr. William C. Kerr and the pastor will each bring the message. Dr. Kerr received high honors at Princeton a year ago when the University made him "Doctor of Philosophy" for his work in Tokyo and Seoul.

The Women's Auxiliary, of which Mrs. George Zentmyer is president, will meet on Thursday, December 1, at the home of Mrs. Norman C. Wickland. Their treasurer, Mrs. Marion Wilkes, reports receipts of more than $300 from the recent bazaar.

SUITCASE, CLOTHING TAKEN

Theft of a khaki suitcase and laundry bag containing clothing and personal identification from his apartment at 285 North Indian Avenue, was reported to police Thursday by Gifford Willis.

The U. S. Treasury will redeem a damaged bill at face value if three-fifths of the original is intact.

Litany Singing to be Marked at St. Paul's

Following the tradition of the ancient Church, the Litany will be sung in procession preceding the service of Morning Prayer at St. Paul's in the Desert tomorrow, the First Sunday in Advent.

The Litany was formerly used as a procession around the environs of the parish church, or the boundaries of a village, and is a series of prayers and responses between the minister and the congregation. It is traditionally sung during Advent, before Christmas, and the Lenten season preceding Easter.

Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8 a.m., and the Church School will follow the Family Service which begins at 9:15 a.m.

The Young People's Fellowship will meet in the Rector's study at 7 p.m. Preparations are under way for the Christmas functions at the church, in which the young people will participate.

Safety Slogan Set for Students

School bus safety slogan in the Palm Springs Unified School District for next week will be "Cross streets on green lights only." George Bond, transportation superintendent, announces.

Students are urged to say the slogan when boarding buses en route to or from school.

Canadian bacon is made from rounded strips of meat called the loins which lie along each side of a pig's back.

Sermon Series to be Continued at Community

"What wilt Thou that I shall do unto Thee?" is the sermon subject for the third in a series of sermons that Dr. James H. Blackstone, Jr., is preaching on the subject "Questions Jesus Asked" at the 11 a.m. sermon Sunday.

This series of sermons will be continued until January 29. Special music under the direction of Elmer Young will be presented. Sunday School is held at 9:30 a.m. and there is a duplicate worship service held at the same time. A trained nurse is in attendance from 9:30 until 12:00 for the care of small children.

At 6:30 the High School department will have their Christian Endeavor meeting in the church parlor and the Junior High Department will have their meeting in the Youth Chapel.

At 7:30 the evening church service will be held in the Sanctuary. This is youth night, with the young people of the church taking part. Merle Hancock will lead the congregational singing. The message will be brought by the Rev. Deran Yallian.

WALTAH AND GRETCHEN Clarke today are greeting Villagers and friends in their new Hawaiian shop at 136 South Palm Canyon Drive. The formal opening is today and everyone is invited. The new shop, fourth location of the Clarks' in Southern California, features $50,000 in South Sea Island wear of all makes and descriptions.

Hand Prints are Exclusive Item in Waltah's Shop

Waltah's new shop at 136 South Palm Canyon Drive is the only shop in America which handles hand prints exclusively. This is because the prints are more original and because they can be reordered more readily. There are only two of the manufacturers in Hawaii who handle their own prints and Waltah is a representative of both these firms.

Handprints are more readily washable and usable in all manners, Waltah says. They represent the finer methods and are the most difficult to develop. It has taken both companies many years to develop these print plants but the final results are satisfactory because it is now possible to put out a fine fabric in true island colors and fabrics long before the mainland companies are able to copy them.

Kraft to Lead First Aid Class

John Kraft, safety services director of the Riverside County Chapter, American Red Cross, will conduct a First Aid Instructors course in Palm Springs at Frances Stevens school, from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m., Thursday, for qualified persons in the Palm Springs, Indio, Beaumont and Banning area.

Teachers are specially asked to attend the course in order to get Red Cross certification before the second semester.

MERRIOTT TO START JAN. 1
General Joe Merriott will start his duties as county airport director on January 1 at a monthly salary of $644, to succeed Ted Hannah, according to county supervisors.

(U.S. Army Photo)
PRIVATE DONALD LEVY, left, who is in his sixth week of basic training under the 1955 Armed Forces Reserve Act at Fort Ord, greets Private Richard Broten upon the latter's arrival at the fort to undergo the same program. The two youths are from Palm Springs, California. Levy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lew Levy, 465 West Cabrillo Road, and Broten is the son of Lester Broten, 334 North El Segundo.

Waltah Clarke Features Best in Oriental Wear

Waltah Clarke's collection this season in his new shop at 136 South Palm Canyon Drive, includes some of the most exotic garments to be found east of the island.

In the handprinted silks from Waikiki one will find the Oriental tea gowns which are made of pure silk and are sort of a tunic dress over silk fitted trousers. This garment comes in many beautiful prints.

THERE IS THE KOKESHI doll print from Japan which has been copied from the ancient wooden Japanese ceremonial doll. These prints are in flamingo red, East Indian curry (chartreuse) and lacquer black. Then there is the cloisonne print taken from the famous Oriental cloisonne vases. This print is electric blue.

There are also in Waltah's collection many of the "command" Oriental dresses. These are in plain colors and in pure silk and cotton. Colors are flame red, turquoise, canary yellow, jade green, tapa beige and many others.

WALTAH EXPLAINS that though he has an Hawaiian shop, the Orientals represent over half of the Hawaiian population; therefore he will always have many of the garments of the Far East in his collection.

There are exotic new Japanese jackets with jet black strapless slacks in pure silk, and many loungers in Hawaiian handprinted flowers and other island designs.

THERE ARE HANDPRINTED cottons in matching family ensembles which are a stock item with Waltah and are to be had in several colors and prints. Waltah says he can always spot the honeymoon couples in Palm Springs by the way they head for the matching outfit racks when they come into his shops.

Then there is the children's department which Waltah has named "grandma's bait." This collection includes pedal pushers, coolie jamas, dresses, swimsuits and shirts, plus coolie jackets for the little girls.

Exotic Food from Hawaii is Specialty

Exotic foods are one of Waltah's specialties in his new shop. Fine Hawaiian jams and jellies made in Hawaii from old missionary recipes are from fruits which are rarely seen on the mainland.

Displayed are mountain guava, Hawaiian passion fruit, (the Hawaiian call it liliko'i) coconuts of course, and many others.

Japanese tea cakes come in gaily printed cans and make wonderful Christmas presents, Waltah says.

Waltah also carries an Hawaiian gift box put out by the Halekulani Hotel from that hotel's own kitchens.

Missing CalTech Scientist Reported Seen in Southland

PASADENA — Albert Clark Reed, 48, Caltech aeronautical scientist who vanished more than three years ago, was reported seen in South San Gabriel this week by a friend, it was disclosed today.

Buster B. Ford, of Monterey Park, who said he was an old friend of Reed's, told police he saw the missing man Wednesday, the same day Mrs. Reed was taken to Huntington Memorial Hospital in "critical" condition. The exact nature of her ailment was not disclosed.

Reed vanished July 7, 1952, en route from his home to Caltech, where he worked on the secret Project Vista. Left behind were his wife, Florence, 40, and a son, Timothy, now 9.

Two days later his note mailed from San Bernardino was received by his wife, willing to her and the child "everything I own."

Ford said he met the missing man by accident in a bar and talked and drank with him. Ford said he was told by Reed, "I'm going home and straighten up my affairs."

The friend said he was unable to reach Reed at a telephone number given him by the missing man.

Reed's wife reportedly had appealed to him to come forth from obscurity and care for their son because she was ill from a malignant disease.

Mailbox Radar Keeps Wisconsin Autoists Honest

MADISON, Wis. — The men who decide where speed zones should be located on Wisconsin highways use a mailbox system to find out how fast cars and trucks travel.

Motorists, who have developed keen eyes for spotting police radar sets, were spoiling survey results until the mailbox gimmick was thought of.

The highway department's speed study men hide a radar speed-measuring device in a rural mailbox. The device is portable. The post on which the mailbox-radar set is mounted is even on a big milk can, just as are many typical rural mailboxes.

The department wants to find out how well drivers observe the speed laws, 65 miles per hour by day, 55 at night. Any lawbreakers are left to state and county patrolmen, who have to work independently. The studies also are used in deciding what sections of highway should have lower speed limits.

The radar-leery motorists are fooled by the mailbox technique. The electronic equipment inside is connected by a cable to a state car hidden nearby.

Other methods the study men use are mounting their radar devices in an open trunk of their car, in buildings or behind trees.

The surveys made over the years show that the average speed on Wisconsin highways is gradually rising. It was 50.6 mile an hour in 1951 and 55.9 this year. Out-of-state cars always have a higher average.

Striking Airplane Engineers Object to Added Police

LOS ANGELES — Striking AFL Flight Engineers protested to chief of police William H. Parker today the assignment of additional police to International Airport, where the strikers are picketing United Air Lines.

The engineers protested to Parker in a telegram yesterday and sent copies of the wire to Gov. Goodwin J. Knight, Mayor Norris Poulson and top union officials.

Parker sent additional officers to the airport when 18 more pickets appeared Wednesday to patrol a driveway which oil trucks used to bring fuel to United Air Lines.

Parker was accused in the telegram of directly giving aid and assistance to United Air Lines "to break the strike as well as creating a direct threat to organized labor."

Meanwhile, in Redwood City, the flight engineers won the right yesterday to place pickets in front of the main building at San Francisco International Airport.

The approval to picket the building came in a modification of a writ obtained last week by the city of San Francisco which barred pickets from airport property altogether.

The modification was approved by San Mateo Superior Judge Edmund Scott who also set Dec. 12 for arguments on whether the engineers can also picket UAL ticket counters inside the airport building.

Scout Leaders to Meet Tuesday

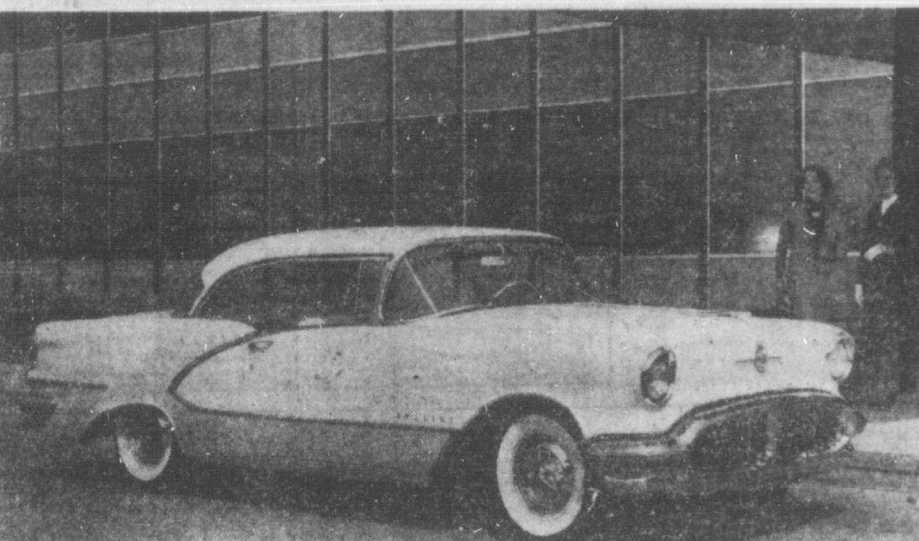

All leaders, co-leaders, or persons interested in working with Brownie or Intermediate Age Girl Scouts are eligible to attend the leadership training course, offered by volunteer trainers Mrs. Margot Morrison and Mrs. Kitty A. French, beginning at 9:30 a.m., Tuesday, at the Girl Scout Little House, 987 Avenida Caballeros.

The first session will be of two and a half hours duration with further sessions planned for the greatest convenience of the majority of those persons attending. A baby sitter will be available.

COMPLEX TRAVEL PROBLEM FACES RAILROADS, BUS LINES, IN SOUTH

ATLANTA — The South today faced a complex problem of freeing Negroes traveling across state lines of their "Jim Crow" status while enforcing local segregation laws for other Negro travelers.

This prospect emerged from the order handed down by the Interstate Commerce Commission Friday outlawing racial segregation of interstate passengers on trains and buses, and in waiting rooms.

In the sparse immediate comment by state officials and transportation executives many indicated they would not be able to foresee full implications of the order until after giving it further study.

GEORGIA'S Atty. Gen. Eugene Cook declared his state will continue to enforce its segregation laws in all but interstate travel but admitted the job would be a complicated one.

Mississippi officials said, on the other hand, that they felt the order was "not too important" inasmuch as many carriers have already lowered the color line on interstate travelers.

The U.S. Supreme Court in 1951 ordered pullman and dining cars integrated and the railroads ended the practice of shunting Negroes into "Jim Crow" coaches as the trains entered the South.

The impact of these developments was slight.

SEGREGATION on most buses remained intact, however, and both rail and bus lines are equipped

Tongay Claims Politics in Move to Hospital Ward

LOS ANGELES — Russell Tongay, Florida prison term escapee who said he was dying of cancer, said today that "politics" may have caused him to be placed in a tuberculosis isolation ward at General Hospital.

The 38-year-old former swimming instructor, convicted of manslaughter for the high-dive death of his "aquatol" daughter, Kathy, 5, said the move made yesterday was "ridiculous."

"The doctor here told me it looked to him like I had TB instead of cancer," Tongay said. "The doctor said Florida officials told him I had TB. They didn't even check me here."

The husky ex-Coast Guardsman said a Florida physician told him he had lung cancer and another doctor told him his ailment was "cancer or TB" and recommended an immediate exploratory operation.

"It looks like politics," Tongay complained.

Tongay surrendered here Monday after escaping from a prison guard in New Orleans. Florida authorities are seeking to extradite him.

"CORN PLASTER FOR A CENTIPEDE"

Luckily (for them) Centipedes don't really need cornplasters because they don't have corns (good luck). They also don't have bunions, ingrown toe nails, fallen arches or blisters. The reason is simple. It's because Centipedes are such stupid creatures they haven't thought of inventing Tight Shoes, Crowded Buses or Cheap Shoes. Nevertheless I've always had a friendly feeling for Centipedes because I figure that having a hundred feet can't be much fun. Especially if it wanted to enroll for an Arthur Murray Course. And 100 feet means 500 toes so if a Centipede got a notion to play "This Little Piggy Went to Market" it'd take a whole weekend.

Sports Sputterings

By WALTER L. JOHNS
Central Press Sports Editor

AN OLD GRAD, follower of the Maize and Blue of Michigan for many years, had tears in his eyes as he witnessed, along with 97,368 others, the windup of that BIG football game between his beloved Wolverines and the pride of Ohio, the Buckeyes of Ohio State.

"It's disgraceful," he muttered. "It's disgraceful."

And so it was.

The wild and woolly finish would have done real justice to the No. 1 player on the field, Hopalong Cassidy, who rode rough-shod over the Wolves in a game which took the Roses away from Michigan, gave Ohio the Big Ten title, and brought a smear on the fine Ann Arbor institution which will be discussed and cursed for months to come.

FOOTBALL is big business, and the business was there. But the Michigan players, including one of their most outstanding leaders, End Ron Kramer, turned into one of the most unsportsmanlike groups ever witnessed by this writer and thousands of others in the stands.

Probably the gentleman who was hurt the most was President Harlan Hatcher of Michigan. In the gridiron guide issued by the Wolves, telling of the university and Hatcher, a first paragraph reads:

"Adding that little extra to the educational process which brings distinction will continue to be the objective of the University of Michigan."

Well, it should be especially so from now on.

SOMEONE figured out that those last few moments of the game, following the tackling of Terry Barr in the end zone for an Ohio two-points, there were 12 penalties called, most of them for unsportsmanlike conduct. Two Michigan players, including Kramer, were ejected.

The scene resembled a street brawl with the spectators tearing down the goal posts before the game ended and storming onto the field. Snowballs came flying out of the stands to add to the bizarre touch.

AND YET, looking over the whole situation, it appears that it was just one of those things, when a group of athletes, seeking their big prize, saw it vanish and lost their heads.

As the referee said later: "The boys were terrifically keyed up on both sides, and I really can't blame any of them for what happened."

That's true, in part, but these boys are supposed to be taught and to know the value of sportsmanship, of losing gallantly. They didn't lose gallantly in this wild one.

MICHIGAN has a grand and glorious football history. Of wins and losses and sportsmanship.

On this day it lost the Roses and the code of sportsmanship within a matter of moments.

Russia to Enter Team in Winter Olympic Games

CORTINA, D'AMPEZZO, Italy — Soviet Russia will enter a team in the Winter Olympics to be held here Jan. 26 to Feb. 8 for its first venture in this field.

The Olympic Organizing Committee announced Friday it had received an application by Russia for the Winter competition. According to the entry, Russia will enter 22 events, ignoring only the bobsledding.

The Soviets participated in the 1952 Summer games at Helsinki and have indicated they will field a full complement for the same events at Melbourne, Australia, next year.

The United States, which sent in its entry earlier, also will compete in 22 events.

Thunderbird CC Foursome Wins O'Donnell Event

The Thunderbird Country Club golf team shot 54 Wednesday at O'Donnell in a choose-up best ball foursome to take first place from seven others competing at the first of the weekly best-ball foursome events there.

The winner's team, Ralph Singer, Jimmy Hines, J. Ross Clark, and Frank Harper, used their various handicaps, as did the other teams, to get the 16-under-par. Clark shot best net round, with four eagles.

Three teams tied with 56 at second place. They were:

Harold Heathman, Earle Strebe, Max Wyman, and Harold Hicks; Frank de Benedetti, Walter Funnin, M. R. Mulhern, and Tony Procopio; Howard Lilly, Richard Ellis, Meade Hargiss, and George Howard.

Fifth with 57 were B. F. Shearer, Henry Rahe, Edwin Silverman, W. W. Fletcher.

Sixth with 58 were Charlie Farrell, Milt Hicks, Joseph Dyer, and J. E. Dad French.

Seventh with 59 were R. H. Fleet, S. D. Cochran, Clark Perry, and Harold McAllister.

Eighth with 62 were D. C. H. McLeod, William Reichel, George Stockfleth, and Gordon Prentice. Pairings for next Wednesday's match have not yet been determined.

Justice Warren Tops at Game

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. — Earl Warren, the Chief Justice of the United States, is the "ranking" dignitary at today's Army-Navy classic.

According to Washington protocol, the Chief Justice ranks after the President, vice president and secretary of state — none of whom will be present.

Other notables who attended were Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson, Secretary of the Treasury George Humphrey, Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson, Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks, Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell, Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Round Robin Matches to End Sunday

Shadow Mountain Polo Club played host today to the first of two days of four-team round robin matches. They will finish the first elimination at about 4:30 p.m.

Tomorrow will see the play-offs of the four teams. They will score on points.

The matches, sponsored by the Palm Springs Polo Club, will feature the teams of the Shadow Mountain Polo Club, the San Francisco Polo Club, Green Acres Polo Club, and the Palm Springs Red Diamonds.

This match is the first four-team play, but there has been three-team round robin matches earlier, and continual polo is scheduled nearly each weekend from now till the end of the winter season.

Teams scheduled to play at SMC include Phoenix, San Francisco, Honolulu, Maui, Brazil, Mexico, Stanford, Colorado A&M, Long Beach, San Bernardino, La Jolla and Beverly Hills.

Social Outcast Tops Pimlico Special Field

PIMLICO, Md. — Social Outcast, who has won seven stake races at seven different tracks this year, was favored to lead home a record field of eight thoroughbreds today in the 19th running of the $50,000 Pimlico Special.

The four-year-old "Marco Polo" of the turf world was quoted at 5-2 odds in the overnight line for the one and three-sixteenth miles event at old Pimlico, which will be nationally televised and broadcast by CBS.

Swaps Moves to Santa Anita for Serious Training

ARCADIA, Cal. — Rex C. Ellis' worth's famous Swaps moved into Santa Anita Park today to start serious training for the winter racing season which opens December 26.

The California champion had been sidelined at the nearby ranch of his owner since sustaining a foot injury in his ill-fated match race against Nashua in Chicago last August. He underwent an operation to correct the injury and is reported in excellent physical condition to resume racing.

Swaps' main objectives at the Santa Anita race track reportedly will be the $50,000 San Antonio Handicap February 11 and the $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap February 25.

RCL Teams Split Even in Opening Gridiron Playoffs

The opening rounds of the California Interscholastic Federation football playoffs saw the two Riverside County League teams entered win and lose. Banning beat Ramona, 14-7, and Coachella lost to Brawley, 21-7.

Banning was winner of RCL play, and Coachella was second. The local Broncos got their score on good breaks. They were able to recover two Ramona touchdowns in their own end zones for automatic touchbacks, nullifying the scores. They recovered a fumble on the San Diego team's 12-yard line, and rolled over for their second score. Their first was made a few minutes earlier (Banning was behind 7-0) after an 80-yard drive.

In the Coachella game, the Arabs made the first seven points, but from that first quarter score on, they were figurative punching bags for Brawley. Five touchdowns were scored on the Coachellans. Two were called back. The Brawley line and back Ralph Casillas proved the Arab's nemesis.

Hi-Desert Golf Course to Close Lists on Dec. 31

Hi-Desert Golf Course at Yucca Valley has received more than 200 applications for membership, and will close its membership campaign as of December 31, President J. W. Yale announces.

The construction of the golf course is privately financed, and all money derived from membership admission fees will be deposited in a trust fund to be used only when the first nine holes are ready for play.

If the course is not playable by October 15, 1956, members will be entitled to a refund of their admission fees in full upon surrendering their membership cards, Yale said. No dues will be payable until the course is ready for play.

Surveying of the course has been completed, and tees and greens staked out under the supervision of William Bell and Son, nationally known golf course architects. Heavy equipment now will be moved in to rough in the course, and to haul sand for traps. Water lines will be laid and the course roughed in so as to permit seeding early in the Spring.

Yale invited visitors to inspect the site, or to call at the offices of the club in the Martell Building at Yucca Valley.

BOWLING

A tie, 2736 pins each between the teams of Bowling Academy and Plaza Motors, marked Thanksgiving eve as historical in Palm Springs Men's Bowling League play at the Bowling Academy on North Palm Canyon Drive.

The tie was in total pins for teams' series rolling. Plaza took high team game with 981 and a Plaza bowler, N. K. MacDonald, rolled the best individual series, 528. High team game honors went to Earl Burton, Bowling Academy team for his 200.

Team scores were as follows:

Bowling Academy — 242
Plaza Motors — 142
Yellow Dogs — 2
Elks 1905 — 2
Mayfair Market — 2
Paddock Pools — 2

MODERN GOLF

By DALE ANDREASON

Today's Timely Tip is on the golf swing.

When the golf club is controlled by the body, all the muscles are set to the club. When this is done properly, the ball can be struck on the center, toe or heel of the club face and the weight of the ball on any part of the club face will not throw the club out of position.

With the old hand, or wrist, action, the ball struck on the toe of the club would open the club up, stinging the golfers' hands. The ball would promptly fly to the right. The ball struck on the heel would also go to the right or could cause the terror of a lot of golfers—the terrible shank.

In the very near future you will be reading articles that will bring out these simple facts:

1—The hands do not supply any appreciable power to a sound golf swing. This is because they cannot supply leverage.

2—All the right hand can do in a sound golf swing is to turn the club face back into the ball in a square position.

Favor Vanderbilt for Sugar Bowl Contest

NEW ORLEANS, La. — Vanderbilt, under the close scrutiny of Pittsburgh Coach John Michelosen, today staked its chances for a possible invitation to the Sugar Bowl here January 2 on an impressive victory over Tennessee, the team that knocked the Commodores out of a bowl bid in 1941.

Selection of the team to play Pittsburgh in the football classic was expected to be announced shortly after the end of four key Southeastern Conference games involving Vanderbilt, Georgia Tech, Mississippi and Auburn.

Most sources here put Vanderbilt on the inside track for its first bowl appearance, with Georgia Tech and Auburn close behind.

ANNOUNCEMENT

TO: Prospective Members.

We have decided to limit the admission of members at this time to 50 lifetime resident members at $360.00, 200 lifetime non-resident members at $180.00, and 100 lifetime social members at $60.00. These admission fees include 20 percent Federal tax.

Our membership campaign will close on December 31, 1955, and application will be acted upon in the order of their receipt at our office.

Construction of the golf course is privately financed and membership fees will be deposited in a trust fund and will not be used until the first nine holes are ready for play. If for any reason the first nine holes are not completed on or before October 15, 1956, members will be entitled to the return of their admission fees in full upon surrendering their membership cards.

Admission fees upon completion of the first nine holes will be increased to $720.00 for resident members, $360.00 for non-resident members, and $120.00 for social members. Prospective members applying for admission at this time will, therefore, secure the benefit of a substantial saving.

Work on deepening and contouring the lakes which will serve as a backdrop and reservoir for the course is under way. Tees and greens have been laid out and construction will start as soon as heavy dirt moving equipment can be moved in. Sand traps and water lines will be laid out so as to permit seeding of greens and fairways early next spring. The first nine holes should be completed and ready for play late next summer.

SAM SEZ:

"If you want to get next to something there is a lot of money in you don't need to lean against the Citizens Bank. Just visit the Desert Realty Co. There's over 2 billion people on earth breedin' like mad and they're spreading. In Japan a man with an acre is looked up to. 10 acres in Italy almost makes you a Count. We can sell you 40 acres for $6000 (less than the price of a cheap home). It's land so good it produces 10 crops of alfalfa a year. Our government states this Coachella Valley land is the only land in the U.S. that can net $1000 per acre.

"WE HAVE over 1000 acres for sale in parcels of 5 acres to 320 from $150 - $250 - $300 - $400 per acre and up. Mid-west farms are selling at $1200 per acre — they can't raise 3 crops of alfalfa a year and now it's cold and gray back there. 400,000 people a year are settling in California. "THIS DESERT EMPIRE is the last outpost in Southern California to be taken up. Don't be like those two stinkers 'Indol' and 'Skatol' — they will always be bums because they can't see an opportunity when it comes. I have been here 24 years. I own a lot of acreage and property here. It gives me security. I can help you, too. You can't go wrong dealing with me. I've made money for every investor who has taken my advice.

"I'LL ALSO LOAN you money if you need it, or buy your good trust deeds. If you're poor and trying to save money I'll even rent you a cabin for $55 month — utilities included. I'll sell you 2 1/2 acres on a street, with utilities, for $3750, on easy terms, just to get you started on the road to success. The secret of success is found in the 1st Psalm. If you obey this 'everything you do will prosper.' Going to church and helping God's cause will help you. The generation of the upright shall be blessed. Wealth and riches shall be in his home.' Psalm 112:2, 3. More than this, if you buy from me I'll give 10% of my commission to your church or favorite charity, what more can I do? A Realtor is a person who believes in 'deeds' not words — let's act now."

Ramon Marks Full Week of Fun, Activity

Ramon Trailer Park has enjoyed a full week of fun and celebration highlighted by the annual Thanksgiving dinner served in the new recreation hall, serving 175 residents and guests with a dinner that will long be remembered.

Being welcomed back to Ramon are friends of years past, Pete and Nell Peterson from Oakland, Hank and Caroline Priester, Vancouver, B.C., Glen and Ada Journey, Wendell, Idaho, who say that Palm Springs weather is more than appreciated this year. Lou and Florence Fry have also returned for the winter and are taking their place in activities.

A grand crowd was at the dance last Saturday thoroughly enjoying the waltz, round and square dancing, and during the evening the Anniversary waltz was played and danced by Twilla and Ike Hand, celebrating their ninth wedding anniversary, and birthday wishes were in order for Tick and Anne Dewhurst.

The welcome mat also is out for newcomers, Howard and Martha Skoulard of West Covina, and Charles and Nona Leonard, who are enjoying gardening and the desert sunshine. The Pettyjohns have been busy entertaining their friends from Los Angeles, Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Kears, Dr. and Mrs. Pulley, Mr. and Mrs. Max Nelson and Mrs. Margaret Logan of Pasadena.

RANCHO TRAILER PARK

What does the trailer resident do with the free time which his way of life provides?

The Rancho Hobby Show held on November 19 provides some of the answers to this question. Here, Rockhounds J. Hayduk, C. Allen, A. Irving and M. King exhibited raw and polished rocks gathered by hand from 18 states and Mexico; Shell Jewelry and fancy shell work were displayed by Mrs. M. Snyder; Hand Painting of table mats, etc., was shown by Mrs. C. Deans, Mrs. E. Stewart, Mrs. C. Lane, Mrs. N. Gow, Mrs. C. Kains, Mrs. E. Quist, Mrs. M. Goss, Mrs. C. MacLafferty, Mrs. C. Hurt, Mrs. C. Wilbur, Mrs. V. Whiteside and Harvey Harris. And such a list gives an idea of the great interest in hand-painting.

Stopping the music at last Rancho Dance, Manager Paul Harrison presented lovely corsages to eight lovely ladies for their work so well done for the recent Trailer Rally. The eight: Eileen Wood, Clover Mauldin, Evelyn Wolf, Barney Allen, Eunice Beal, Corrine Gibson and Laura Saunders.

Shuffleboard champion for the week at Rancho Trailer Park is Mr. W. Reilly who celebrated his 91st birthday last July. Mr. Reilly is also a crack rifle shot. Makes us want to suggest that it will take an older man to beat him. Congratulations, Mr. Reilly.

Thanksgiving Turkey Dinner, family style, was enjoyed by over 200 Rancho Folks on that traditional Thursday. Hostesses: Laura Saunders, Kate Moore, Alice Fidler, Laurie Scott, Pearl Rogers, Ruth Davis, Florence Kohlmer and Clara Deems. Welding the carving knives, the Messrs Harkerbrod, Rogers, Fiddler and Bayley. On the Coffee Pots: Herman Shultz.

Over 100 guests enjoyed a community Thanksgiving dinner. Some, with visiting members of their families had separate tables, the rest eating at long tables "family style." Three new shuffleboard courts are in constant use with practice for the inter-park tournaments ahead.

DELUXE TRAILER PARK

The new archery range, sponsored by the Happy Spaces Club of DeLuxe Trailer Park, got off to a good start with the arrival of Dan Metzger, famed archer and former manager of Hollywood Archery. Dan will give Sunday lessons to members of the Happy Spaces Club which is open to admissions to all for a small charge that covers costs and use of bows and arrows. Non-residents of DeLuxe are most welcome.

HORIZON TRAILER PARK

Thanksgiving Dinner at 4 p.m. was served family style for over 100 residents and their visiting families. The Dinner was followed later in the evening by round and square dancing. Ray Johnson doing the square dance calling. Many residents were absent from the park over Thanksgiving because of visits to their own homes and families for the traditional dinner.

RAMON TRAILER PARK

With Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson in charge of arrangements, 175 Ramon residents enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner in the Recreation Hall. Many visiting guests of residents joined in group singing. Master of Ceremonies Trinkle made a hit by encouraging the group singing of visiting grandchildren. Good luck to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Markham who are taking over the Ramon Cafe and store.

SAHARA PARK

The club house accommodated 139 residents and immediate members of families at Thanksgiving dinner served by ex-terers Mr. and Mrs. Ed Werges, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Homer Webber. Later in the evening, round dancing to the regular orchestra and square dancing to the calls of Jim Bruner were enjoyed by all.

TRAMVIEW TRAILER PARK

Thanksgiving Dinner at Tramview for 165 guests was in charge of Jane Yantis and a large committee. Wonderful dinner, beautiful decorations, cornucopias, etc. The evening was celebrated with a "jam session" by the Tramview Orchestra led by Harriet Strong. Old fashioned round-dancing was enjoyed by the enthusiastic crowd. Special guests, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Miller, popular square dancers are visitors over the holiday weekend.

Bob Hollister, owner, is adding three new regulation size shuffleboard courts to the four already in use. Shuffleboard tournaments practice will take on new emphasis at Tramview.

DESERT TRAILER VILLAGE

Seventy-five residents of Desert Trailer Village enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner in the recreation hall. Julia Easley, in charge of the dinner, was aided by Minnie Price, Ella Bunker and Mary Parkham. Resident Paul Moreland, who is also chef at Village Coffee Shop, roasted the large turkeys with stuffing and gravy and received compliments and thanks from all. Bob and Mildred Ritchie, owners, were glad that Bob's father, Thomas Ritchie arrived in time to enjoy the large Thanksgiving Dinner group.

McKINNEY'S PALM CANYON PARK

A number of residents of the park were invited to join the big McKinney family Thanksgiving Dinner. Twenty-eight persons enjoyed the family meal with its two large turkeys, 9 pies, etc.

BLUE SKIES TRAILER VILLAGE

Here at Blue Skies the wish of most was to prepare and enjoy their own dinners as individual families. Outdoors eating, however, was the idea of most on this beautiful Thanksgiving Day in the desert.

'Early Days in Pass' is Theme of Bank Opening

"Early Days in the San Geronio Pass Region" is the theme chosen for the formal opening December 10 of the new Banning home of Citizens National Trust & Savings Bank of Riverside.

The opening ceremonies are scheduled for 2 p.m., to be followed by inspection tours of the new building, refreshments in the comfortably appointed employee lounge and distribution of party favors to visitors.

The ultra-modern $175,000 building combines the contemporary usage of reinforced concrete with an exterior wall treatment of ceramic tile arranged in an abstract pattern at front and rear entrances. The new structure has an interior finish which combines cedar with exposed areas of concrete painted in desert colors.

There are 12 teller windows, a large vault, escrow booths, a customer's lounge and an officers' platform in the lobby on the main floor. The parking lot, with direct access to the lobby, is situated in the rear of the building with its entrance on Third Street and will accommodate up to 30 cars.

Foster deJesus Given Varsity Soccer Letter

Foster Warren deJesus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Santos deJesus of 3761 Camino San Miguel, was awarded a varsity soccer letter at the annual Williston Academy fall sports banquet this week.

Wilmut S. Babcock, head coach of soccer, made the presentation. Springs with residence at Prairie Schooner.

CAR RACES SHARE EVENT SPOTLIGHT

Christmas dominates the Southland scene next month, but the Palm Springs Road Races December 3 and 4 share the prominence in the All-Year Club's December events calendar released today.

The Southland's outdoor Christmas celebrations have become a major tourist attraction, the All-Year Club reports. No other section of the country so closely matches the Holy Land in climate and terrain. In fact, southern California is in the same latitude as Bethlehem, Jerusalem and the countryside surrounding these Nativity cities.

Blooming of poinsettias during December provide a natural background for the Yule season. San Diego honors the poinsettia with its annual Poinsettia Pageant, which includes a song festival and poinsettia show in Balboa Park, and a football game between top service teams in Balboa Stadium December 10.

ALMOST EVERY community in southern California has an outdoor Christmas celebration, many with parades and pageants. Some of the most famous are: Hollywood's Santa Claus Lane. Every night preceding Christmas, Santa proceeds down Hollywood Boulevard in his elaborate sleigh, usually accompanied by some television or movie star.

Altadena's Christmas Tree Lane. From December 24 to 31, the 125 giant Deodar Cedars on Santa Rosa Avenue are illuminated by 10,000 lights, creating a breathtaking fairland of 100-foot trees and colored lights. The mile-long avenue is so brilliant that cars drive along it with headlights off.

NAPLES' CHRISTMAS Water Pageant. On the nights of December 18 and 19, the nautical neighborhood of Naples in Long Beach sponsors one of the Southland's most unique Yule events. Launches, power cruisers, yachts, barges are decorated with lights and Christmas ornaments for a parade through the canals out onto Alameda Bay. Santa and carolers add fun and music to the parade. Lighted Christmas trees form buoys in the bay.

Huntington Park's annual Christmas parade will be held December 3. Floats, bands, mounted units and majorettes march down Pacific Boulevard, gaily decorated for the occasion.

La Jolla salutes Christmas on December 2, when the Old English lanterns in the Cove City are lighted and a community parade winds through the town.

SANTA ARRIVES in El Centro December 2, using a 100-year-old stagecoach instead of a sleigh. A parade of floats and horsemen follow.

Bakersfield's Christmas parade will be held December 2. This year, more than 100 floats will participate.

San Diego will sponsor a Christmas ballet December 18, in front of the Spreckel's Organ in Balboa Park, largest outdoor organ in the U.S.

Escondido's annual Toyland Christmas parade will be held December 2, with trophies being awarded to winners in 10 divisions.

SANTA BARBARA's annual Christmas home tour will be held December 9 and 10, with visits to some of the outstanding gardens and estates, including many in Montecito.

Fullerton's "Birth of Christ Child" pageant will be held from December 20 through December 24. This outdoor pageant in Hillcrest Park will depict a different scene from the Nativity on each succeeding night.

Riverside will again sponsor its citywide competition for best home and office decorations.

Glendale's Tunnel of Lights will be turned on all through December. This is formed by thousands of colored lights strung across Brand Boulevard.

In the Longridge Estates district of the San Fernando Valley, residents—many of them movie and television personalities—cooperate to decorate 100 percent of their homes for Christmas.

HUNTINGTON BEACH combines its annual Band Review with the opening of the Christmas season

December 9. Some 60 bands from high schools and junior colleges parade through the beach city welcoming Santa and the Yule season.

Other events during December include the Kern County Potato Bowl Football Game December 3, between prominent Junior College football teams.

The annual Junior Rose Bowl game December 10 in Pasadena sees the best junior college team from the west battle the best jaysce team from the east, in the classic sponsored by the Pasadena Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Glendale's annual Pigeon Show will be held December 8 to 11 in the basement of the Civic Auditorium.

GRIFFITH PARK's Planetarium will again stage its "Star of Bethlehem" show, recreating the sky over the Holy Land at the time of the Nativity. The show will be held Wednesday through Sunday evenings, with special matinees Saturday and Sunday.

The annual Imperial Valley Kennel Club dog show will be held December 11 in Holtville.

At La Jolla, two major tennis tournaments will be held—the U.S. Lawn Tennis hard court championship December 8 through 11, and the national senior hardcourt tennis tourney December 2 through 4. Both events will be held at the La Jolla Beach and Tennis Club.

Corona's annual football jamboree will be held December 2, featuring high school bands parading around Circle Drive.

Los Angeles' International Automobile Show will be held in the Pan Pacific Auditorium December 1 through 11, featuring new models, both U.S. and European.
